HOTELS BARRICADE PARKS OF BERLIN

Hotel Man's Wife Attacked REACTION BY PUBLIC IS PREDICTED UNLESS REDS ARE QUICKLY OVERCOME

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

COBLENZ, March 22.—Barricades are being thrown up in the public parks of Berlin, advices say. Information from the Essen area says living conditions are becoming critical; that fanatical sentiment rages, and that reaction by the public is expected if the Reichswehr does not drive out the Reds.

A special train sent from Coblenz early Saturday to bring away Americans and other Allied nationals in Leipzig returned today. It brought only one passenger—J. R. Robertson, a London business man. All Americans and other persons desiring to quit Leipzig left on a German train Saturday night.

On his arrival in Leipzig Sunday night, Bernard Marvin, one of the engineers in charge of the American train, canvassed the city, which then was in control of Ebert troops. Except Mr. Robertson, all foreigners in Leipzig decided to remain.

It was found that Dortmund and other stations were under soviet control.

Saturday Hamm was under Red control. Hanover and Bitterfeld were quiet. A Red escort boarded the train at Altenhausen Sunday night. After a fruitless search their leader decided three Reds should accompany the train through that region, leaving it at Duisburg.

Heavy fighting was reported at Bochum Sunday. The station agents at Dortmund, Dusseldorf and Oberhausen informed Lieut. Marvin cruel treatment had been meted out to government troops captured by the Reds.

Lieut. Marvin estimated the dead in the fighting at Leipzig last week at between 300 and 400.

BERLIN, March 22.—"The strike is practically over." This was announced by the government press bureau today in an optimistic statement on the situation.

Spartans have been operating in small bands in the outskirts. They are sniping along the main avenues of approach; in some instances these approaches have been closed by barbed-wire entanglements and barriers of stones. That the Spartans are well equipped is shown by the fact that troops have captured from them several machine guns and numerous rifles.

Gustav Noske, Minister of Defense, presented his resignation to President Ebert this afternoon and the President accepted it. Other Cabinet changes are imminent. It is announced the Independents today demanded a definite labor cabinet and that the government is considering the demands.

PARIS, March 22.—Eight thousand persons have been killed since the German revolt broke out on March 13, according to advices received here. Of this number 550 were killed in Berlin alone.

BERLIN, March 21.—Conditions in Germany were described by the Minister of Defense this morning as extremely serious. "You cannot paint the situation throughout Germany too black," an official at the ministry declared to the correspondent after a survey of the reports that had come in during the night.

The situation in Berlin itself was characterized as "bad." In one case a company of volunteers had been overpowered by Spartans, and officers killed and their bodies mutilated.

The southern and eastern parts of Germany are reported quiet. To the north of the Spree, in the Berlin district, the outskirts of the German Outbreak to Bring on Others More Serious, Says World Student.

"The recent disturbance in Germany has been long anticipated and I look for the new government to take a leading part in the labor affairs of the world, due to the great interest in sociologic questions always manifested by the German people," said Dr. E. J. Dillon, noted writer and student of international affairs, on his return yesterday from Mexico, where he has been viewing conditions during the recent months.

Dr. Dillon is at the Beverly Hills Hotel after a tour of the principal cities and towns in the southern republic. "Germany has always taken a leading part in socialist and laboristic movements," he continued. "It is my belief that this uprising will be followed by others in Europe. Other nations will not yield so easily as does the German government, so that if disturbances do occur elsewhere they may be more severe."

"In America, conditions are entirely different from those in Europe," he continued. "Here a man with talents or industry can mount higher than his fellows without them. With that fact firmly established in the American mind, the country population will be more sane. Dr. Dillon expects to return to Mexico soon to gather more data for forthcoming books."

Hollywood Woman Rescued After a Desperate Struggle

A desperate battle in the dark between her husband and an assailant, Mrs. George S. Krom, wife of the manager of the Hollywood Hotel, was found shortly before midnight, at Hollywood boulevard and Orchard street, in a dangerous condition, believed to have been caused by drugs administered by the man.

Krom and J. H. McShane, a guest of the hotel, found her when they were attracted by her moans while they were in the vicinity for her after she had failed to arrive home. As they entered the darkened garage a man sprang from the back part of the automobile and, rushing toward Mr. Krom, struck him on the head with a blunt instrument, dazing him for a few minutes. After a brief struggle the assailant entered the building and was confronted by a night watchman, who endeavored to subdue him and disappeared in the darkness.

According to stories told by Mr. McShane, Mrs. Krom went out for a ride in her automobile at about 10:30 p. m. When she failed to return, a search was started. Mr. Krom and Mr. McShane were approaching the garage when they heard her moans. The police are working on the theory that the assailant waited for her to return to the garage. A large diamond ring on her finger was not touched. Mrs. Krom was taken to the hospital and immediately underwent an operation. According to reports made to the police, she was injured.

WOOD'S CAMPAIGN. Borah Asks Investigation of the Funds Spent for Candidate.

Chairman Proctor's statement follows: "Gen. Wood is the candidate of the people and not of the politicians. His candidacy has been fought by political combinations and Senatorial groups from the beginning. His campaign is being conducted by men who are not politicians. Convinced as we are that Gen. Wood is the man needed to lead the government during the four fateful years ahead of us and believing that such is the sentiment of the people, we have been conducting solely on the lines of presenting the man, his character and his record to the people. No money has been expended except within the strictest limits of the State and national law and solely for the purposes stated."

BAINBRIDGE COLBY IS CONFIRMED BY SENATE.

CRANE, MINISTER TO CHINA, AND JOYCE, FAIRM LOAN BOARD, ARE APPROVED.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The nomination of Bainbridge Colby as Secretary of State was confirmed today by the Senate. It was understood that no objection was raised to confirmation of the nomination, which has been the subject of extended secret hearings by the Foreign Relations Committee. There was no regular vote on confirmation.

Several Republican Senators who were regarded as critics or opponents of Mr. Colby were not present at the session.

Word reached the State Department today from New York that Mr. Colby would come to take the oath of office tomorrow. The first business to receive his attention will be the issuance of about 4000 passports accumulated since Undersecretary of State Polk ceased to act as Secretary.

Third Assistant Secretary Long, candidate for the Senate from Missouri, also is planning to resign.

FRAGE RATIFIED AT OLYMPIA.

(Wash.) March 22.—Ratification of the proposed amendment to the Federal Constitution to women was voted unanimously by the State Legislature here today.

The amendment is the thirty-fifth State to ratify the amendment. Ratification by thirty-six States would make the amendment a part of the Constitution. As soon as the two houses acted on the Delaware Legislature, now in session, asking that body to ratify and complete the list necessary.

CHILE WILL AID PEACE. War is Averted in South America.

Situation as Regards Peru, Bolivia and Chile Primed for Trouble.

Arica Sea Outlet Must be Settled Definitely Before Tranquility Comes.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

BUENOS AIRES, March 22.—Chile has replied to the American note asking Chile to leave nothing undone to prevent a conflict between Peru and Bolivia, according to Santiago dispatches. Chile has no other desire than for peace, says the note, which expresses full confidence that Bolivia will appreciate her duties in respect to foreigners domiciled in her territory.

The Peruvian Charge d'Affaires here, interviewed today by La Nacion said: "Official dispatches received at the Legation give the impression of a disappearance of the possibility of a serious conflict between Peru and Bolivia."

BONE OF CONTENTION.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Arica, a seaport town of North Chile, situated in the province of Tarma, was until the Chile-Peruvian war of 1914, a Peruvian province. Chile won the war, and from that time on there has been controversy over the Arica province which Chile annexed as the right of conquest. In fact, so little and enduring has been the feeling over the annexed province that the territory had come to be referred to as the Alsace-Lorraine of South America.

According to the terms of peace, the Arica province was to be returned to Peru in 1914, but this was not done. Bolivia has sided with Peru in the war with Chile, and it was probably as a punishment for this that Chile annexed Arica. In this way, Bolivia would be cut off from the sea, except by buying a way through Chilean territory.

The Chilean desire of Bolivia in maintaining this opening to the sea was for it to have a point which would allow commercial activity and also let it develop the resources of the wealthy territory.

Bismarck had the economical development of Germany at heart when he took over Alsace-Lorraine from the French after the War of 1870, but underneath that the imperialistic ambitions of the country. Chile, too, was more or less imperialistic, and in possessing the property would be able to keep Bolivia from becoming a militaristic nation, much as Bismarck planned when he took over Alsace-Lorraine.

With France in possession of the coal fields of that territory it would have the opportunity of becoming a strong, warlike nation, since the coal fields and iron fields would enable it to develop the art of making war implements.

Chile had another way around the matter, but the same was in view: Watch the importations of arms and munitions, and Bolivia would never have the chance to be a great military power.

That the plan was successful is, according to reports of travelers in that section of South America at the time of the Argentina-Bolivia dispute in 1908, not to be doubted. In the Argentina-Bolivia quarrel, which nearly precipitated the two countries into war, there was occasion for such comment on the possibilities of the outcome if such a war actually occurred.

The consensus of experts was that Bolivia would not have had the ghost of a chance for the simple reason that Chile was guarding Arica, the only seaport, and the Bolivians would have had to fight their way to it getting ammunition and arms.

This, of course, is merely the TOKIO IS AROUSED. To Investigate Japs in California.

High Commission Appointed to Inquire Into Asiatic Fight in State.

Returned State Senator Says Orient is Anxious for Friendly Relations.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SACRAMENTO, March 22.—Japan, in order to avoid any possibility of strained relations with the United States and to promote closer co-operation, will send a high commission to this country to make a close study of the Japanese question in California, with a view to recommending a solution that will prove satisfactory to both nations.

Such was the statement made today by State Senator Charles E. Bills, who returned Sunday from a prolonged tour of the Orient.

"The Japanese government has been influenced to make this decision by its intense desire to establish closer relations with America," the Senator said, "and by the straight-forward way in which Americans living in the Japanese islands are driving home to government officials the seriousness of the situation over here."

"Talk of war between the United States and Japan is absurd," he declared. "Our exports to that country in the last two years exceeded their shipments to us by 12 per cent., and they are increasing just as fast as shipping facilities can be secured."

"The one thing Japan seems to want most is the establishment of closer trade relations with the United States, and they are going to do anything which they find must be done to create those relations."

Prior to the great war Japan patterned after Germany, Senator Bills said. Japan bent its every energy to the construction and maintenance of a gigantic military machine. The Japanese neglected their commerce, and today they realize their mistake.

California fruits, the finding of markets for which took Senator Bills and Peter B. Newman of a local packing company to Japan, are already turning in that direction, and the field is limited only by shipping facilities.

In Tokio, Yokohama, Nikko and other Japanese centers skyscrapers patterned after America are being erected from material bought in this country. This purchasing of American goods will continue, the Senator believes, because the price of Japanese labor has doubled in the last two years.

BAKER SEES PROFIT IN A MUSCLE SHOALS PLAN

WASHINGTON, March 22.—An annual profit of $2,000,000 would result from government operation of the Muscle Shoals, Alabama, nitrate plant for manufacture of commercial fertilizer, Secretary Baker today told the Senate Agriculture Committee.

The Secretary advocated passage of the War Department bill to organize a $12,000,000 government corporation to operate the plant for commercial purposes.

PORTLAND IS OPEN SHOP. Oregon City Freed of Union Fetters.

Chamber of Commerce Passes Unanimous Declaration of Industrial Liberty.

United Influence is Pledged for Fair Play for Worker and for Employer.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

PORTLAND, March 22.—Portland's Chamber of Commerce stands absolutely committed to the open-shop policy, through action taken at a meeting of its entire membership today. The action taken was a formal ratification of a resolution introduced by the board of directors and adopted by unanimous vote and with great enthusiasm.

The members' council of the chamber several weeks ago brought to the attention of the directors the fight that Portland industries are making against union domination. The directors went into the subject in detail, decided it was time to take a firm stand for the American plan of open shop, and the action of today followed.

The resolution declares implicit faith in Americanism and explains the open-shop principle as inseparable from real Americanism. Some planks of the resolution adopted follow:

"We will always use our united influence in opposition to injustice, whether by employer or by employee."

"Every individual, subject only to legislative action, has a right to choose his employment and to agree with his employer relative to the terms and conditions thereof."

"The employer has the same privilege of choosing his employees, either individually or collectively, as to the terms and conditions under which he or they shall work."

"No limitation shall be placed on the amount of work to be accomplished in a reasonable day's work, nor the manner in which payment shall be made for the same, whether by hourly rate, piecework, contract or otherwise, believing that every workman should have the opportunity to earn a wage commensurate with and in proportion to his productivity, and that the inefficient workman should not set the standard or otherwise place limitations on the efficient."

FIRST OF PORTLAND'S I.W.W. TRIALS BEGUN.

PORTLAND, March 22.—Joe Laundy, one of twenty-six alleged I.W.W. arrested here on the night of November 11, last and later indicted on charges of violating the State Criminal Syndicalism Act, went to trial in Circuit Court here today. Judge Harry H. Belt of Dallas, is presiding at the trial.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Aurora borealis tonight kicked up her heels, danced all over the sky and put telegraph wires out of commission. The wire chief at Western Union headquarters reported the company had no instruments strong enough to measure the voltage in the electric currents. Nature's skylarking in the Northland at times during the night made telegraphy an impossibility.

BULLETINS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—A new ambassador to Mexico has been selected by President Wilson, but White House officials refused today to say who he was or when his appointment would be made. The new envoy will succeed Henry P. Fletcher.

TERRE HAUTE (Ind.) March 22.—Ed Stuart and William Mitch, president and secretary and treasurer, respectively, of District No. 11, United Mine Workers of America, and eighteen others were arrested here today by a United States marshal on a charge of conspiracy to enhance the price of coal in connection with the recent indictment by a special Federal grand jury at Indianapolis.

TACOMA, March 22.—Fire of incendiary origin, according to Chief Carlson of the Tacoma fire department after an investigation, destroyed the grand stand at the Tacoma Sports Ground, 1700 miles south of the city limits, this morning, causing an estimated loss of $20,000. No insurance was carried.

MAJOR WHO ESCAPED DEATH IN FIVE-MILE FALL TO TAKE CHANCE AGAIN.

CLEVELAND, March 22.—After escaping death in a five-mile fall, freezing his eyeballs and being confined to a hospital for more than two weeks, Maj. Rudolph Schroeder, of Dayton, will attempt to fly from San Francisco to New York in ten hours.

Maj. Schroeder holds the world's record for airplane altitude. His heart still flutters easily and his eyes are affected by the freezing, but as soon as he has recovered completely he will try to set another record. He plans to make the cross-country flight at a height of 30,000 feet, which, he says, will permit him to attain a speed of 350 to 400 miles an hour.

BODY IN RIVER THREE MONTHS IS RECOVERED.

SACRAMENTO, March 22.—A body, supposed to be that of I. E. Blackston, a San Francisco carpenter, was recovered from the Sacramento River about five miles below this city today. The remains were so decomposed as to be unrecognizable, but a key ring had upon it Blackston's name.

Coroner Skelton said the remains had been in the river two or three months. There was also a bank book showing a small deposit in the Humboldt Savings Bank of San Francisco.

MONSTER NAVY IN FOUR YEARS.

Britain's Fighting Power to be Equalled Then.

United States will Have Forty-seven Ships.

"Most Formidable Armada World has Seen."

WASHINGTON, March 22.—America's navy will about equal that of Great Britain in fighting power by 1924, Chairman Butler of the Naval Committee told the House today in defending the provision in the naval appropriation bill for continuing work on the eighteen capital ships now under construction.

"In the next four years," said Mr. Butler, "the United States will put out the most formidable armada the world has ever seen produced in a similar period."

ENGLAND'S SIXTY SHIPS. In 1924, he continued, Great Britain will have sixty battleships, the United States forty-seven, France twenty-six, Japan fifteen and Italy thirteen. While England will have more ships, he added, those of the United States will be about equal in power.

Representative Mondell, the Republican leader, said that considering foreign exchange values, the $148,000,000 total of the proposed American naval appropriation exceeded the estimate for the year by $10,000,000.

"For the first time in many years," he said, "the only naval establishment and program in the world at all comparative with ours is that of England. No other navy or naval program is of a size and strength even remotely approximating ours. In fact, since the practical wiping out of the German navy, all the re-

BRITAIN'S NIGHT WIRE. AURORA (Ind.) The woman then recalled that she had missed the rings during the fruit-canning season.

BENSON WOULD FIGHT BRITISH.

He was Naval Official Who Cautioned Sims.

Warning was Repeated Twice, Once in London.

Senator Objects to Giving Remark to Public.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Rear-Admiral William S. Benson, then chief of naval operations, was the official who told Rear-Admiral Sims "not to let the British pull the wool over your eyes; we would as soon fight them as the Germans," Admiral Sims testified today before the Senate committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war.

Admiral Sims said the remark was said just after he had received his instructions from Secretary Daniels preparatory to his departure for England on the eve of the entry of the United States into the war. He added, however, that it was not made in the course of formal instructions, but during a conference in the office of Rear-Admiral Palmer, chief of the Bureau of Navigation.

The witness told the committee that Admiral Benson repeated his admonition during a conversation the following day and that he made the same remark six months later in London.

"INTENSELY ANTI-BRITISH." Admiral Sims said he did not pay particular attention to the statement at that time, because he believed Admiral Benson was intensely anti-British. He added that this belief was sustained generally throughout the service. The witness was reluctant to give the name of the officer, but Chairman Hale insisted.

"Then I will tell you the whole story," said Admiral Sims. "Early in April, 1917, I was ordered from my post at Newport to Washington. When I arrived I reported to the Navy Department by telephone and was told not to come to the department, but to get in touch with the chief of the Bureau of Navigation. Rear-Admiral Leighton C. Palmer, Everything was very secret, the way they liked it. I could not get in touch with the chief of navigation then and so I reported to him later at the department and then I had an interview with the Secretary of the Navy in his office. No one else was present as I remember it. The interview was very brief. I was told that I was going abroad to confer with the Allied admiralties and that Ambassador Page had requested that an officer of high rank be sent there for that purpose. After leaving Secretary Daniels' office, or just before going there, I don't remember which, I went to the Bureau of Navigation. The admiral was there and it was at that time that the remark was made. The chairman has asked me about was made."

opinion of those familiar with South American politics, it may have been that Chile would have offered no objections to the importation of munitions, and that the prevention of Bolivia from becoming a military power was not even thought of.

Despite Bolivia's present antagonism to Peru over the cessation of the strip of land which will give it an outlet to the sea, it has nothing more than a "claim of justice" to the land. Peru and Chile have always been at odds over the territory, the placid which was to determine the country never having been held, so it is necessary for Bolivia to get the consent of Peru to the territory, as well as Chile, since either of the latter two countries would not allow the other to make disposition of it. Chile and Peru both claim the territory at present.

VAST ACREAGE FOR VETERANS.

Canada Throws Open Farming Land to Her Men.

Many Valuable Sections Included in the Gift.

Will Bring British Soldiers for Settlement.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE)

OTTAWA, March 22.—Several thousand acres of valuable land in Northwestern Canada is to be thrown open for the benefit of soldier farmers. It is expected there will be a great many come from British points and a fair number of returned Canadian soldiers will also take up farming in British Columbia and in the Northwest.

The soldier settlement board announces that action is being taken to dispose of 75,000 acres of Hudson's Bay reserve lands which have been cancelled by the crown, situated in the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta, and 10,400 acres of Doukhobor reserve lands near Kamloops, B. C.

The opening of a further area of 30,000 acres now held within grazing leases will be arranged for as soon as their release, now being negotiated for, can be secured.

VALUABLE SECTIONS. Within the area being thrown open there are a number of quarter sections that are specially valuable, some ranging as high as $5000, because of the quality of the soil and their nearness to populated centers. These lands will be advertised and sold about April 15, next, at a reasonable price and the proceeds applied to a reserve fund for the purpose of offsetting settlement losses and in aiding returned men physically disabled, but whose condition and circumstances necessitate their being settled on land.

The balance of the area, comprising a considerable proportion of it, will be thrown open about April 26 for soldier grant entry and assistance will be given in the form of farm loans for stock and equipment to all whose knowledge of farming will enable them to proceed with the development and operation of their lands.

IMPERIAL VETERANS. The soldier settlement board has been advised by its London (Eng.) office that the committee sent to England to select imperial veterans for settlement in Canada is now operating. Already approximately 100 applications have been approved and of this number 35 per cent. have had experience in farming. These veterans will be required to spend at least one year on farms in Canada to become familiar with Canadian methods. The others will be absorbed into the board's training establishments and will be required to spend at least two years farming in Canada before becoming eligible for the loan benefits of the act.

FLEET VISITING DAY FOR NAVAL RESERVE.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.) SACRAMENTO, March 22.—Gov. Stephens today said:

"To stimulate interest in the Naval Reserve force, all reservists in the State of California are invited to visit the men-of-war in the ports of San Francisco, San Pedro and San Diego, on Saturday, March 27, to renew associations with the regular navy."

At the request of the commandant of the Twelfth Naval District, I am glad to direct attention to the importance of maintaining the naval reserve and to urge upon all members thereof, their families and friends, to respond to the invitation to visit the men-of-war in the ports of San Francisco, San Pedro and San Diego, on Saturday, March 27, to renew associations with the regular navy."

GARBAGE COLLECTORS STRIKE IN CHICAGO.

ALL TEAMSTERS AND CHAUFFEURS QUIT WORK—GENERAL WALKOUT FEARED.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) CHICAGO, March 22.—The first walkout in what may be a general strike of city employees came today when 500 teamsters and chauffeurs quit work, tying up collection of garbage and interfering with street cleaning.

The strikers demanded an increase of $2 a day. The chauffeurs receive $6 and the teamsters $3. Officers of the Clerks' and Stenographers' Union notified the City Council that a strike would be called Thursday unless demands for a wage increase of $2 a month were granted, and delegates from other groups of city employees asked wage advances.

The Council today considered the 1919 budget, which totals $21,110,000, in an effort to straighten out wage difficulties, but took no action.

Members of the regent board and the faculty will speak. Tomorrow evening the annual alumni dinner will be held in Oakland. South American, Central American, Oriental and other foreign universities will be represented by special delegates to the inaugural.

A Private Watering Place

This private bay, a mile and a half this side of Laguna Beach, has approximately 5000 feet of shore line, over 2000 feet of which is smooth sandy beach. It has caves, rocks, promontories and quiet pools containing marine life. Its promontories tend to protect it from the wind and usually it is quiet enough for small boats to land. Complete privacy and control are insured by rugged cliffs on either side.

With it there are 150 acres of hills and valleys, fine building sites and farm land. Eucalyptus trees extend close to the beach.

It would be a delightful private estate for an individual, a private club or a group of friends. A private estate with beautiful homes already adjoins on the south. The coast near Laguna is the most picturesque in Southern California. It is where marine views are made. Well-known artists have built their studios and homes there to be near it. This place has an all-year climate. You can have green vegetables from your own land in the winter months. It is a place sought at Christmas time as well as in summer.

It is a fine place for men to leave their families and motor down on Friday evening and back on Monday morning—a two and a half hour run, over paved road all the way. (The new State Coast Highway will also connect the property with Los Angeles.)

The ideal development would be for a private group or club, or for one man to take it and subdivide it to his friends. It can, however, be publicly subdivided by the purchaser and the price of the whole property returned by the sale of beach lots alone.

The property can be purchased for $125,000. There are few, if any, possibilities like this on the Southern California Coast.

This opportunity appeals to local, inland and Eastern people.

STATEWIDE TRUST SERVICE

A Word to Women

It is said that women hold the nation's purse strings. Certainly a large proportion of man's income is expended by the woman who presides over the home.

It is logical, though none too common, to give her every opportunity to learn the ways of investment. Also to encourage her to administer home finances so that a fund may result which will endow her with an investment income.

There are many men, who, if acquainted with the "Bank of Italy Trust Plan" for Creating and Enlarging an estate, would see great possibilities for their women folks in the plan: they would willingly add stated sums to women's savings toward a fund established by this method. For, besides providing in time a separate income, it would give their women folks contact with investment specialists; and, should the time come when a death thrusts heavy financial responsibilities upon them, they will know to whom to turn for dependable aid.

We suggest to women that they ask for our Booklet, the "Bank of Italy Trust Plan," read it, and discuss its suggestions with their husbands.

Itching, Scratching Skin Diseases That Burn Like Flames of Fire

Here is a Sensible Treatment That Gets Prompt Results.

For real downright, harassing discomfort very few disorders can approach so-called skin disorders, such as Eczema, Tetter, Boils, eruptions, scaly irritations and similar skin troubles, notwithstanding the lavish use of salves, lotions, washes and other treatments applied externally to the irritated parts.

No one ever heard of a person being afflicted with any form of skin disease whose blood was in good condition. Therefore, it is but logical to conclude that the proper method of treatment for pimples, blotches, sores, boils, rough, red and scaly skin, is to purify the blood.

and remove the tiny germs of pollution that break through and manifest their presence on the surface of the skin.

People in all parts of the country have written us how they were completely rid of every trace of these disorders by the use of S. S. S., the matchless, purely vegetable blood cleanser. S. S. S. goes direct to the center of the blood supply, and strengthens and builds up the circulation, giving a clear and ruddy complexion that indicates a healthy condition of the skin. RAILROAD WAGE BOARD COMPLETE

Corporations and Workers Form Joint Committee.

To Consider Pay of More than Two Million Men.

Interstate Commerce Commission Holds Hearings.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, March 22.—Formation of the joint railroad wage board was completed tonight by the conference committee representing the railroad corporations and the sixteen railroad unions, which elected E. P. Whiter of the Pennsylvania Railroad, chairman.

The bipartisan body is ready to consider wage demands of the 2,000,000 workers which twice have been rejected by President Wilson without a settlement.

The board today began re-examination of the voluminous records and data on workers' contentions gathered by the wage adjustment boards of the Railroad Administration. The corporation representatives agreed to include those in the board's wage records and to employ them, as far as practicable, as a basis on which to discuss the controversy.

According to indications the board will not deal with the question of a whole until minor points of difference are eliminated.

WILSON IS IGNORED.
The suggestion of President Wilson that the board should give close study to the relationship between present railroad wages and the cost of living and also to the pay of labor in other industries probably will not enter into the conference until toward the end. The disposition seemed to be to talk of "specifics" rather than generalities at the outset and on this point union leaders said they had won.

Railroad representatives explained that the Association of Railroad Executives had instructed them to enter the negotiations "in a spirit of co-operation" but they reminded the union leaders that financial responsibilities rested on the corporations which must be considered when wage claims were under consideration. Reference was made, it was said, to the hearings now before the Interstate Commerce Commission and the statement made that wage increases hinge on higher rates.

Union leaders scouted the report that their demands would aggregate an additional $1,000,000,000 on railroad operating expenses.

COMMISSION HEARINGS.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, March 22.—Hearings to determine the basis for an adjustment of railroad rates so as to yield the roads a return of 5 1/2 per cent. on their aggregate value as provided in the transportation law began today before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The commission is to determine whether the adjustment shall be made for the carriers as a whole, or in rate groups or lots to be designated by it, and what methods shall be employed in determining the aggregate value of the railroad property.

KEEP PORTLAND SUGAR AT SEVENTEEN CENTS.

NO INCREASES UNTIL STOCKS ISSUED ON OLD BASIS ARE EXHAUSTED.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
PORTLAND, March 22.—Sugar prices here will be held at the basis of 15 cents per hundred pounds wholesale and 17 cents a pound retail until stocks issued from the refineries on the old basis have been exhausted. Will H. Daley, United States fair price commissioner, announced today.

Wholesalers said in connection with the order that the price of 15 cents was being maintained by all jobbers in the city but that the 15 cents would go into effect with each individual wholesaler as soon as his stock purchased on the old basis has been exhausted.

They refused to predict just when the advance would take place but it was expected to be within the week.

Mr. Humphreys, who was accompanied by a stenographer, said he expected to be here until Wednesday, "and perhaps longer."

SEVEN CARS OF RUM, POLICEMAN IN HAUL.

LIQUOR BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN BROUGHT FROM CANADA TO WASHINGTON.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SEATTLE, March 22.—Seven automobiles, loaded with liquor, were seized by Federal prohibition agents early today at the dock at Meadowdale, Wash., a Puget Sound point north of Seattle.

Seven men were arrested. One of them was T. J. Clark, a Seattle police sergeant. Officers said they believed the liquor had been brought in launches from Canada to Meadowdale. Shots were fired at a launch which left the dock when the officers approached.

In the dark, two groups of officers fired upon each other several minutes. None of the shots took effect.

Roy Olmstead, lieutenant of police, was arrested today by Federal officers investigating the alleged liquor "ring." Olmstead and Police Sergeant Clark were dismissed from the force by Chief of Police Warren.

LITTLE HOLE SAVES IT.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
PORTLAND, March 22.—When the police last Saturday arrested Samuel Peretti on a charge of violating the prohibition law they sealed and left in the basement of Peretti's home a cask of wine they found there.

When they returned today to get the wine the seal on the cask was intact, but a neat augur hole near the bottom of the cask revealed a scheme whereby someone had salvaged the greater part of what had been intended to form exhibit A at the trial.

SUPREME COURT TO REST.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, March 22.—The Supreme Court announced today that at the conclusion of the arguments in the New Jersey and Wisconsin prohibition cases next Monday, it will recess until April 12.

The court refused to advance to next Monday the hearing of arguments in the cases of William G. Street of New York, J. J. Dillon, of San Francisco, attacking the validity of the prohibition enforcement act.

FAVOR HAWAIIAN LAND BILL IN WASHINGTON.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—A Hawaiian commission sent to Washington to present to Congress the islanders' desire for legislation affecting public lands, met with a sympathetic reception, according to Harry Irwin, Attorney-General of the Territory, who arrived here on his way back to Honolulu.

A bill inaugurating a policy of setting aside portions of territorial lands to be leased to native Hawaiians at nominal rental as a means of rehabilitating that race, has been introduced in both Senate and House and has every prospect of passing, Mr. Irwin said.

Other members of the commission are Gov. McCarthy, Senator Shinglee, and Representative Lyman. The Hawaiian commission is expected to call for home on the Wednesday.

REFUSAL WILL NOT DELAY OPERATION.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
RIO JANEIRO, March 22.—The court here has refused to register a contract between the Minister of Communications and the Central and South America Cable Company for buying two cables between Rio de Janeiro and Uruguay and also between Rio de Janeiro and Cuba. The Tribunal took the ground that the contract would not affect early operation of the cables, laying of which is nearing completion.

MEXICAN REBEL CHIEF RISKS LIFE TO VISIT SWEETHEART; BETRAYED BY HER BROTHERS.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

MONTEREY (Mex.) March 22.—It is a story of love, romance, intrigue and tragedy that comes from Puebla. It was with the full knowledge that if he was discovered and taken prisoner he would be placed in front of a firing squad and shot that Capt. Arenas, former officer in the Carranza army, left the camp of his band of revolutionists in the mountains of the State of Hidalgo and went to Puebla for a brief visit to his sweetheart, Miss Guadalupe Montejano. True to his grave fears, he was recognized and thrown in jail, when he was taken forth in the gray of the early morning a few days ago and shot without the formality of court-martial.

HAD PICKED BAND.

For many months Capt. Arenas and his band of revolutionists of more than 500 men had been operating along the line of the Interoceanic Railroad, to the east of Puebla. They had their headquarters in the mountains and all attempts on the part of Federal troops to rout them out and give battle proved futile. Before becoming a revolutionary chief Capt. Arenas was an officer in the army of President Carranza. He was popular with the rank and file, and when he revolted he took with him several hundred well trained and equipped men.

It was during the time that he was a Federal army officer that Arenas began the romance in Puebla that finally brought about his death. He met and fell in love with Miss Montejano, who belongs to a well-known and highly-respected family of that city. Their love was plighted, but when Capt. Arenas turned against the government he became an outcast and hunted man. He was given no opportunity to meet or commune with his sweetheart. Occasionally he communicated with her by written note or letter through the intermediary of a trusted messenger. Finally he could endure the separation no longer. Disguising himself as best he could, he went to Puebla and called at the home of Miss Montejano. It was a lover's meeting, but it was witnessed by two brothers of the young woman, who are loyal to the Carranza cause, however much they thought of their sister and her romance.

TAKEN FROM THEATRE.

When Capt. Arenas and Miss Montejano ventured upon the street and entered a moving-picture house, the former thought that his disguise would prevent him from being recognized. The news of his presence in Puebla had been secretly conveyed to the local military authorities by the brothers of Miss Montejano, and hardly had the affectionate couple seated themselves in the moving picture show when an officer entered and placed Arenas under arrest. He was dragged away from the scene and placed in solitary confinement. His fate was not left long in doubt. Orders came that he be given the same treatment as is accorded other bandit leaders. He was taken into the jail yard, placed against a stone wall, and shot by a company of picked soldiers.

No sooner had the information of the execution of Capt. Arenas reached his devoted little army of followers than they began preparing to avenge his death. They marched upon the town of San Martin Temelec, situated near Puebla, which they attacked and captured. It is stated that the Carranza troops that defended the town were completely routed. Many prisoners were taken and all were executed.

DUBLIN, March 22.—In a riot
here tonight two men were killed and four seriously wounded. It was precipitated by the disorderly conduct of soldiers, about 300 of whom paraded the streets about 9 o'clock singing, jostling passers-by, hammering on doors and smashing windows.

After parading through Harcourt street the soldiers returned toward their barracks followed by a crowd of civilians, the Forties, the Belle bridge, near the barracks, a clash seemed inevitable and a volley was fired over the crowd.

The soldiers who started the disorder eventually returned to their barracks. Other soldiers not concerned in the riot were roughly handled by the populace.

CORK, March 22.—Fifteen thousand persons marched today in the procession escorting the body of the late Thomas MacCurrian, Lord Mayor of Cork, who was assassinated early Saturday morning, from the cathedral to the cemetery of St. Finn Barr.

Some 2000 Republican volun-

was said for the repose of the soul of the murdered Lord Mayor of Cork, Thomas MacCurrian. After the services the men returned to work.

BLACK MURDER WEEK.
(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
LONDON, March 22.—Dispatches from Ireland show the murder of Thomas MacCurrian, Lord Mayor of Cork, to have produced an intense,
if subdued, sensation throughout Ireland.

This tragedy, says the London Times correspondent in Dublin, closed one of the blackest weeks since the rebellion of 1916. He gives a long list of outrages in various parts of the island, including five murders of policemen and others and an attempt to kill Prof. Stock-ley of Cork.

The motive for the murder of the Lord Mayor continues as mysterious as ever. Among the theories advanced is one that MacCurrian was murdered as a warning to others because he recently had the courage to publicly deprecate an attempt to murder a policeman in Cork.

OF CHARGES, PLANT IS TO BE DISPOSED OF

(BY A. P. MOUNT WIRE.)
SEATTLE, March 22.—Representatives of the United States
Emergency Fleet Corporation late today formally took possession of the Shinner & Eddy Corporation's shipyard No. 2 here, following dismissal, at the request of the Seattle court, of a suit in Superior court to restrain the government from interfering with its possession of the yard.

Action of the Emergency Fleet Corporation in taking over the yard was believed by shipping men here to be preliminary to its sale to David Rogers of Seattle.

Recent Washington advices were to the effect that the Shinner Board had accepted, tentatively, Mr.
Rogers's offer of $3,400,000 for the yard. The Shipping Board and Shinner & Eddy Corporation held approximately equal equities in the plant and equipment, it was said.

INSULTED, SHE KILLS
YOUTH; TRIAL BEGUN.

(BY A. P. MOUNT WIRE.)
DURANGO (Colo.) March 22.—
Caroline Jones, 17 years old, confessed slayer of Carl Bay of Bayfield, today was placed on trial in district court here charged with murder.

Bay was shot and killed in Bayfield, January 29, last, when he met the girl on the street. Caroline went into a hotel after the shooting and waited for officers to arrest her.
She charged that Bay had insulted her.

Attorneys for the girl announced
the defense would be justifiable homicide. Bay was a former soldier and the son of wealthy parents.

(BY A. P. MOUNT WIRE.)
OAKLAND, March 22.—Rabbi

dead here today in a synagogue
while offering prayers for his wife, who had been buried only a few hours before. Immediately following the funeral Rabbi Arndt had gone to the synagogue with his two sons for prayer. Apoplexy was given as the cause of death.

WILSON'S CZARDOM NEARS END.

Taft Sees Termination of the Regime of "the World's Greatest Autocrat" Impatiently Awaited by America's True Democracy Believers.

BY WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

The strain which a nation willingly bore during the war leads to a reaction, in which, in an illegal and sometimes unjust but natural way, the responsibility for the necessary burdens after the war is visited upon the party conducting the war.

The fate of Orlando in Italy; of Clemenceau in France; the evident weakening of Lloyd George and his government in Great Britain and the unpopularity of the coalition government in Canada, are all instances in which this usual reaction is apparent.

Disraeli once said, when his ambitions were defeated by a coalition, that he was content to wait, for British people did not like coalition. Mr.
Lloyd George and Sir Robert Borden are about to test the truth of Dis-raeli's aphorism.

In Canada there has been a coalition, and it has lost the support of the people. It has carried on the government by orders in council, an arbitrary method quite analogous to the post-war exercise of war powers
by our own government.

FARMER MOVEMENT.
In Ontario there is a revolt against the old parties in a curious farmers' movement which has secured control of the Legislature and executive of that province. Mr. Rainey, the Attorney-General, under this farmers' government, in an address at Toronto the other night, described its growth as like that of Topay. He said it was a "leaderless" movement;
that the farmers met in lanes and roads and in the fields and talked,
one man with another, and in this quiet, undemonstrable way the movement formed itself, until at the last election it unseated the conservative government. Its Attorney-General describes its principles as embodied in the two slogans—"Common sense" and "Common honesty."

These are not very informing indications of its policy, and the political wiseacres in Canada are awaiting the meeting of its first Parliament to see what "common sense" and "common honesty" are to bring forth in the way of a definite programme.

The movement, however, has invaded both parties, so that the leaders of the old parties are unable to conjecture what effect its success will have in the Dominion election.
There is enough to indicate that it is not such a radical and so socialist a movement as our Non-partisan League in the Northwest.
It has very few lawyers in it. Indeed, the Attorney-General was not initiated into it until after its success. The fact that the party sought the aid of a lawyer's assistance is a good indication. The only Parliament in Great Britain's history which was known as the "Poo's Parliament" was the Parliament from which by law were excluded the lawyers.

TIDE AGAINST WILSON.
In this country there was no coalition during the war. The marvel is that in spite of the exigency of the war the spirit of narrowest partisanship characterized the administration. No Republicans are responsible for any of its faults. The tide against it is everywhere. The depth of feeling against Mr. Wilson and his one-man government renders a change certain.

The contrast between Mr. Wilson's position of prestige and influence when he first landed in Paris and his present isolation from the sympathy of any considerable group in the world is painful.

The impatience
with which men of affairs look forward to relieving the country from his dictatorship impresses itself on every one who travels. The sentiment is as strong in commercial centers of the South as elsewhere.
The lip loyalty of a strictly partisan journals and of the office holders does not mislead any one.

Mr. Wilson's conduct in respect to the treaty; his breaking with one man after another associated with him in its making; his breach and the consequent loss of confidence in his leadership; his evident im-perviousness to popular opinion, intensify the earnest desire of those who feel the heavy weight of taxation, who are convinced of the unnecessary waste of public funds and who note executive effort to continue arbitrary war powers, to oust him from control.

BITTS RENEFACITOR'S HAND.
Even organized labor, having obtained much from his administration, is resentful because it hasn't obtained more. The strict partisanship which has characterized the appointments during the war, already referred to, will make the public lenient toward a clean sweep of local offices and will tend to weaken the merit system until the Republicans shall have established themselves again.

This is one of the evils of the reaction for which Mr. Wilson's narrow policy in this regard is responsible.

ENVOY IN WASHINGTON
DEMANDED IN CANADA.

NEGOTIATIONS NOW CARRIED ON THROUGH LONDON
DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
OTTAWA, March 22.—In political circles here there is a growing demand for direct Canadian representation at Washington. Such political incidents as the Lennox reservation are pointed to as examples of where Canada should have an official representative at the United States capital.

At present negotiations have to be carried on through the medium of diplomatic circles at London. This is a round-about method and there is often much delay. It will not be a surprise if there is legislation in the House of Commons at the present session to pave the way for the appointment of an official representative at Washington.

It is probable the imperial government will, through the medium of slightly amend the British North America Act. At various times the names of Sir Robert Borden, Sir George Foster and others have been mentioned as public men who would suitably fill this position. So far, there is nothing official.

HEY MA!

You said to get the best an' I got
it. Now I want that big thick slice you promised me.

SANE INVESTMENT
VS
SPECULATION

Invest—To lay out (money or capital) in business with the view of obtaining an income or profit.—Webster's Dictionary.

Speculate—To buy or sell with the expectation of profiting by a rise or fall in price, often, to engage in hazardous business transactions for the chance of unusually large profits.—Webster's Dictionary.

These definitions are even more vivid today than when written, because the world during and since the war has been rife with speculators, profiteers and "fly-by-night" promoters.

The acknowledged security of an investment in first mortgages or improved income-producing real estate appeals to the conservative investor who seeks the stability of his principal, coupled with the highest rate of interest consistent with safety—rather than vague promises.

DOCTOR ON STAND IN

DEAN MURDER TRIAL

RELATES HOW ACCUSED WIFE MET HIM STOICALLY AT HOUSE OF TRAGEDY.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SAN LUIS OBISPO, March 22.—Wounds from which Fred R. Dean died and conditions in the Dean household the morning after his death became known were described today by Dr. A. H. Wilmar, of Paso Robles, who examined the trial of Mrs. Myrtle Dean for her husband's murder.

The doctor said he was called by telephone by a neighbor of Mrs. Dean, who asked him to "come over," that some one had beat up Fred R. Dean and that she had been twenty minutes after he was called and was admitted to the house by Mrs. Dean. She showed no emotion, he said.

The doctor said he saw Mr. Dean's trousers in the hallway, the pants torn and dirtied. He also saw way to the bedroom where Mr. Dean's body was lying in bed. The bedding was drawn up to the neck of the body, he said, and there was no indication of a struggle having taken place. Mr. Dean's hands lay flat at right angles to the floor, he said. There was no blood on the bed, he declared.

Dr. Wilmar commended him to the room, the doctor testified, and insisted upon washing Dean's face. To this he demurred, he declared, telling him to wash himself.

The body first. However, he said, he believed the face had been washed. He examined the head and neck. He said that in examining the body he had occasion to rest one knee on the bed and that what he believed was the coroner must view his clothing at the knee.

Dr. Wilmar said a fire was burning in the room where he reached there, there was a light in the room and the entire house seemed warm except the room where the body lay.

The doctor said he called in Constable W. H. Evans of Paso Robles, who arrived and began investigation of conditions throughout the house. Mrs. Dean having said that someone had entered the bedroom and that she had seen him. They examined doorways to see if there was any bloodstain. Mrs. Dean said she did not know who approached the kitchen sink. Mrs. Dean called to them, urging that they then examine the basement stairs, saying that no intruder was lurking there.

After that, the doctor said, Mrs. Dean came downstairs to inform her laughter, Bertha, of the news. Mrs. Dean grew somewhat hysterical at this point, he declared.

He then called in E. C. Campbell, attorney at law, and J. C. Campbell of counsel for the defense. Dr. Wilmar gave it as his opinion that Mrs. Dean had been in the room standing at the right side of the bed. He was struck with an insult, he said, but it evidently was not intended for her. He said he would have struck with considerable force if he had not been told that she could have struck the blow, he said.

Dr. Wilmar said Mrs. Dean's condition was very satisfactory.

Going into details regarding the wounds Mr. Dean suffered, the doctor described the fracture of bones of the skull and added that in addition Mr. Dean's false teeth had been broken, apparently by a blow from the back of the head. He noted several cuts, the largest of which, he said, was more than five inches long and about half an inch deep. One of the spinal column.

Fred Maze, a Paso Robles plumber, testified that he was the first man present in the room where he reached near, he said, had called him about o'clock in the morning asking him to come down to the house. When he came immediately. Mr. Maze said, and he asked Mrs. Dean to talk to him while he, Mr. Maze, finished the plumbing work. Mrs. Dean repeatedly asked him:

"Won't you please help me wash my husband's body?"

When they reached the bathroom, she declared, he asked Mrs. Dean she had heard any noise during the night. She replied that she thought it a cat. She said also, a witness testified, that she heard nothing during the night. Her husband's room, but did not investigate.

Mr. Maze said that when he entered the room where the body lay, he found the door open. He asked: Ain't he dead? Ain't you going to help me wash him up?"

At this time, he said, the constable Evans examined the doors and windows of the house and found all of them locked except the one through which they entered.

ANTHRACITE COAL PAY PARLEY AT STANISLUS

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, March 22.—Negotiations for a new wage agreement for anthracite local miners virtually are at a standstill today, pending decision tomorrow by the workers' general scale committee as to whether there is to be a suspension of work April 1 when the agreement expires.

Sentiment of the miners, as interpreted by union leaders, is unambiguous. If the demand for a mine operators agree to make wages increase retroactive from January 1, the miners are reported poised to such an agreement.

Hopes of speeding up the negotiations and reaching a definite understanding before the demand by the U. I. virtually has been abandoned. Because of the delay in reaching agreement, the miners' union stated, the subcommittee has slaved with the hope that an award be made to the soft coal workers—which could mean a precedent for an anthracite agreement.

OIL HOIST'S NOT BIG "SQUEEZE" BY STANDARD.

Independents Fail to See in the Recent Jump Evidence of Gigantic Freeze-Out Game by the Standard.

Are the independent refiners of California about to be ground between the upper and lower mill stones? Are the big manufacturers after the scalps of the little fellows? Is there a gigantic game of freeze out going on under the very nose of the consumer? What of the oil hoist's recent jump in the price of gasoline? Is the increase the result of a freeze-out game? These and other allied questions are agitating the oil world.

When crude oil advanced the other day 25 cents a barrel and gasoline moved up 2 cents a gallon the community pocketbook shivered beneath the shock. Practically everyone is interested in the cost of gasoline, for it is "gas" that makes the wheels go round.

The Standard Oil Company explains that gasoline prices are higher for the identical reason that bread prices are higher than meat prices. Namely, a shortage in raw material. Crude oil, so far as the Standard is concerned, is a scarce commodity. It is a fact that the Standard's production is less than that of the independent refiners. It is a fact that the Standard's cost of production is higher than that of the independent refiners. It is a fact that the Standard's price of gasoline is higher than that of the independent refiners.

RICH MAN'S VICTIM OR LIAR? "DO NOT WRITE," DIVORCE LESSON

Pal Contradicts Engstrom's Accuser.

Edna Odell.

After undergoing a severe cross-examination yesterday in the trial of Paul E. Engstrom, son of a local contractor, accused of a statutory offense, Edna Odell, principal witness against the defendant, collapsed and had to be assisted from the courtroom.

The girl, who gave her age as 17 years, upon being questioned by Deputy District Attorney Randall and Joss, told her version of the events of the party at Venice in July, 1919. She said she went with the defendant to a party at Venice, where she drank something that made her dizzy. She thought it was whiskey, she stated, but had never tasted liquor before. She declared after she became dizzy, the defendant took her to a room in a Venice hotel.

NEW BUILDING FOR WESTLAKE

Plan a Structure to House Shops for Women.

Building improvements of importance to the Westlake district are foreshadowed as the result of the closing yesterday of a fifty-year lease on property owned by Col. Henry Laub at the southeast corner of Alvarado and Orange streets, the lease being Frank L. Schaffer, one of the owners of the De Luxe Theater on Alvarado street. Under the terms of the lease, which was arranged through Dieter & Johnson, Mr. Schaffer will erect a four-story building on the property, the three upper floors of which will be arranged for specialty shops catering exclusively to women, while on the ground floor corner will be a drug store.

BRYAN HARD HIT BY MISSIONARY.

Fall Committee Told of Ire at Policy on Mexico.

Citizens of the United States plinned the Union Jack to their coat lapels and declared they were Englishmen, after W. J. Bryan, then Secretary of State, informed them that they had no business in Mexico, said Rev. Edwin L. Brown of 1254 Royal court, formerly a Baptist missionary in the southern republic who testified before the Fall subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations yesterday. The testimony was offered during the final session in this city of the subcommittee, which is investigating the entire Mexican situation.

MARKET AND APARTMENT ALSO TO BE ERECTED.

Westlake Park, and as regarded as among the choicest business sites in that district.

Complaint with this announcement yesterday that he will build one of the finest market buildings on the Pacific Coast on property on Alvarado street adjoining on the south of the De Luxe Theater, the same owner, who has a frontage of 100 feet by 176 feet. After these improvements are completed, according to Mr. Schaffer's intention, according to his agents, to erect a ten-story apartment house and a new and larger theater to supplant the present one. F. L. Schaffer will conduct the theater and his brother, Charles Schaffer, the market building. The construction of the new store building at Alvarado and Orange streets will begin immediately upon the expiration of the lease on the present buildings.

With more showers in prospect, Southern California is soaking wet as a result of copious rains, which have fallen intermittently since early Sunday morning. In many districts the precipitation for the season is several inches ahead of last year's record at the same date and at some places last season's total precipitation has been exceeded.

The forecast for today is for rain in Southern California, the San Joaquin and Santa Clara valleys and the southern part of the Sacramento Valley. Showers in the San Francisco Bay district are to be expected, as yesterday, the forecast says.

It is stated by Mrs. Freedman that her husband choked her and threatened to tear her clothing from her.

Dr. Louis Freedman made a report to the police that his wife fired a shot at him. Mrs. Freedman declared that she merely fired to scare her husband and to summon assistance because she was afraid he would harm her.

Pending a hearing of the suit, Dr. Louis Freedman was restrained from disposing of any money or property. Alimony proceedings will be heard Monday.

An ordinance was adopted by the City Council yesterday amending the matter in which collection agencies shall be rated for the collection of business license taxes. The flat rate for collection agencies is $15 per quarter for $10,000 business; $22.50 per quarter for $15,000; and $30 per quarter for businesses running over $15,000 per year.

SMALL ONES ANXIOUS.

The Standard claims that it was necessary to advance the price of the well in order to stimulate production, and, of course, when the Standard and the other big fellows volunteered to pay more for the raw material the small refiner was bound to advance his bid or go without the crude.

This brought up the question in the minds of some students in oil as to whether or not the large refiners are really very enthusiastic over the increase in price of refined products. It has been intimated in some quarters where oil men gather that the big fellows would like to see the price of crude advance, but that the small refiners would not like to see the price of refined products advance.

PROVIDE COMPETITION.

The independent refiners have also had to pay a bonus over the prices set by the Standard Oil Company in order to get the crude oil. The smaller producer, who naturally prefers to sell to the company which can furnish them pipe, line and transportation facilities, is not in a position to compete with the big companies.

The independent refiners in California come today from a number of lines. The competition has in the past been a factor in the market, and it has been strong enough to prevent the big companies from raising their prices. But the action of the Standard Oil Company in raising prices as it has during the past two months will inevitably have the effect of forcing the smaller refiner out of business unless proportionate advances are made in the price of gasoline. This will leave the field entirely clear for the big oil companies in California.

RESERVE SUPPLY LOW.

Small refineries are not making money as a result of the recent increase in the cost of gasoline, according to Harry S. Botsford, manager of the Puente Oil Company. The increase in cost of gasoline has been comparatively greater than the increase in gasoline, and the 2-cent rise in price really will show a decline in the small refiner's profit.

Crude oil, 30 gravity refined, has been increased 16 cents a barrel since February 1. Mr. Botsford states, and if gasoline was sold at a comparatively higher price, it would be retailing here for 29 cents a gallon.

CRUELTY CHARGE BROUGHT BY WIFE WHO SHOT THROUGH DOOR OF HER HOME.

Following a shot said to have been fired through the door of her home in Sawtelle by Dr. Anna H. Freedman to scare her husband, Dr. Louis H. Freedman, suit for divorce was filed yesterday by Mrs. Freedman, charging cruelty and, further, that her husband made false accusations against her. The complaint was prepared by Attorney James G. Owen.

DOCTOR SUES DOCTOR IN DIVORCE COURT.

It is stated by Mrs. Freedman that her husband choked her and threatened to tear her clothing from her.

Dr. Louis Freedman made a report to the police that his wife fired a shot at him. Mrs. Freedman declared that she merely fired to scare her husband and to summon assistance because she was afraid he would harm her.

Pending a hearing of the suit, Dr. Louis Freedman was restrained from disposing of any money or property. Alimony proceedings will be heard Monday.

WASTE GASOLINE.

There is an abnormal demand for gasoline at this time, due principally to the fact that there are very many more automobiles in use in this State than there were a year ago. Moreover, many automobile owners and truck drivers do not understand the seriousness of the oil situation, and waste considerable gasoline, Mr. Botsford declared. He stated that gasoline users be told to be more careful with their oil. Mr. Botsford does not believe that the company can close the engine's throttle at any time. Its increased facilities for refining the crude oil.

HOVLEY IS HELD

IN SLAVE CASE.

Prominent Rancher to Await Action by Grand Jury.

Sordid Story of Niece Left Unshaken, Says Court.

Salacious Testimony Draws Crowd of Listeners.

At the end of a day of salacious testimony that attracted a crowd of eager listeners, Peter P. Hovley, the well-known Imperial county rancher and a leader of activities in that section, was held to the Federal grand jury by United States Commissioner Long, yesterday, in a bond of $2500, charged with violation of the Mann White Slave Act. It is charged that he brought his niece, Mrs. William Staldyden, from Chicago to Los Angeles for an immoral purpose.

In giving his decision Commissioner Long said the sordid story told by the woman had not been contradicted; that he believed that Hovley had illicit relations with her at Wausau, Wis., Chicago, all along the route from that city to this coast and for months to this city, and that there had been a violation of the Mann law. He referred to the kinship of the parties and the fact that Hovley is so much the elder. The defendant is 44 years old and the woman not yet 22.

A statement prepared by Special Agent Hall of the Department of Justice, covering an interview with Hovley on February 22, last, was the feature of the morning session in court. The statement said Hovley admitted that he had visited the girl at her home at Wausau, Wis., in August of 1918; that they had had immoral relations at her home; that she visited him at the Morrison Hotel, Chicago, where she spent two days with him, and that he had furnished her money to return home; that later on he went to Chicago and they came West together, occupying the same stateroom; that he had illicit relations with her when she returned to Chicago to get married to William Staldyden, her present husband. Then, on the advice of his attorney, he had refused to make any additional statement.

The testimony of the defendant was brief. He admitted that the statement made to Special Agent Hall was substantially true. He also told of letters he said he had received from the woman's husband, when in Chicago, which mislabeled the defense says contained threats. Mr. Hovley also said that Mrs. Staldyden's mother had written to him, offering to appear as a witness against the daughter.

E. F. Coons, a business associate of Hovley, testified as to demands by Staldyden upon the accused for a settlement with the woman. "The witness said the husband had declared he would not live with Mrs. Staldyden on account of her relations with Hovley and insisted that the latter make some provision for her. Mrs. Staldyden threatened to send Hovley 'over the road' if he refused to make a financial allowance for the woman, said Mr. Coons.

JUDGE AGAINST BARNES.

Promises Alimony of $250 a Month If He Has Jurisdiction.

If the authorities submitted show that he has jurisdiction to grant an allowance to Mrs. Dollie A. Barnes, Stonehouse, Judge Taft stated yesterday, he will grant her $1000 attorneys' fees, $750 costs and $250 a month temporary alimony. When it was stated to the court that Mr. Barnes owns a $1,000,000 circus property, the court replied that the evidence in the recent divorce plea, which was denied, showed that he only owned 101 shares of stock in the circus, works for the circus on a salary and lends his name to the organization. Judge Taft added that he was not impressed with the "showing of poverty" of Mr. Barnes, as his manner of living and other circumstances do not indicate it.

BURGER DENIES GUILT.

Civil Service Commissioner Asked Trial by Jury.

Charles R. Burger, civil service commissioner, indicted for contributing to the delinquency of three youths, Harry Hanson, committed to Ione; William Russell, awaiting sentence, and Lester Wheeler, now in San Quentin, on a perjury charge, pleaded not guilty before Judge Reeve of the Juvenile Court yesterday and asked for a jury trial.

The case was sent to the Presiding Judge's department to be transferred to the Criminal Department 12. The date of the trial will be fixed later.

Mr. Burger had demurred to the indictment and yesterday Judge Reeve overruled the demurrer. He is represented by Attorneys Hanna, Richardson and Parke.

Mr. Burger contends that he is the victim of bitter animosity on the part of a public official. He says that at the trial he will prove his innocence of the asserted crime.

WANTED "LAST FLING."

Missing Defendant Said to Have Gone to Tin Juana.

Gertrude Moran, accused of a statutory offense, who disappeared the day before her trial was to have started in Judge Craig's court, told several persons that she had gone to Tin Juana to have one last fling, according to the testimony yesterday of Mrs. Louise Kelly. The witness said that the defendant told her that she intended to commit suicide, and that she, belonging to the defendant, was found on the pier at Venice.

The case was taken off the calendar yesterday and a motion of Deputy District Attorney Fricks for forfeiture of bail was entered and continued until April 5. The defendant's interest was represented by Frank Dominguez and W. Helms. No evidence other than Mrs. Kelly's testimony was introduced to show that the defendant had committed suicide.

MORE SAILINGS

AT THIS PORT.

Admiral Line Announces New Schedule to Take Care of Heavy Traffic.

Because of increased passenger and freight traffic at this port, the Pacific Steamship Company, operators of the Admiral Line, announced yesterday that, beginning at once, its service will be increased to four sailings a week to and from Los Angeles and San Francisco.

According to W. M. Cline, district freight and passenger agent for the company, the steamers Governor and President and other ships of the company will sail from this port Sunday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and will arrive from the north each Tuesday, Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. Sailings for San Diego will be on Mondays and Wednesdays by daylight, and the return trips on Tuesday and Thursdays at night.

The ships will also call at Seattle and British Columbia ports.

WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY MYRA NYE.

Women's City Club.

"Women's Rights Under the Law," was the pertinent subject discussed by Edwin A. Meserve before the Women's City Club, yesterday afternoon. It was also a palpitating subject as was evinced by the questions hurled at Mr. Meserve by the women for it was the community property law, in particular, that had been emphasized.

"This community property law as proposed has no part logically with the common law which is still a part of the California law," said Mr. Meserve. "It cannot be grafted upon the original law any more than grapes can be grafted on a peach tree. The community property law should be just one statute. This one proposed will bring about more litigation in my opinion than any other measure of the last ten years. It does not provide for equality. It is ambiguous in its interpretation. Men and women should get together to frame a law which should define for all time rights of women in property. Man or wife should have absolute equality; they should be joint owners of the community property, and the one who dies first should have entire right of disposition of property," Mr. Meserve stated.

Mr. Meserve was fearless in the expressions of his sincere opinions, consistently maintaining the same attitude both in his address and in answers to all the questions asked from the floor. He paid a tribute to the work of the women's clubs, recognizing the big part they have played in the evolution of women's rights from the beginning until today, when they "are about to come into their full redemption," as Mr. Meserve put it.

Henry E. Carter, president of the Consumers' League, spoke for that organization's efforts to reduce the high cost of living. He stated that today in Los Angeles there are 6,000,000 pounds of potatoes in storage owned practically by two companies, with from one-half to 1,000,000 pounds coming in every day and prices still going up. To remedy this evil, Mr. Carter stated the Consumers' League proposes neither boycott nor a fixing of maximum prices. It proposes that the District Attorney indict the guilty ones who own the potatoes and promise them, if there is no law that will punish them the league is ready to put over a law that will cover the case, he declared. Mr. Carter said that the most of the potatoes in Los Angeles are owned by Japanese.

Ebell Club.

The wonder of Olga Steeb's piano playing, individually and in contrast with the Ampico, was the great pleasure reserved for the Ebell Club members yesterday afternoon. The growth of this young pianist, stated those who heard her when she was little more than a child, is nothing short of a marvel. There is verve, intensity and emotional possibilities that manifest not only technique and study, but a rich musical nature of continued promise in development. In her second number the "Pastoral Variee," by Mozart, the lyric tones of her touch gained a quality that was a marvel. When the Ampico took up the theme, one thought at first her tempo had been heightened, but when Miss Steeb's masterful hands again lured the music from the piano, the conviction became profound that her technique was as the piano player's, but soul was added. As she played this "Pastoral," an artist, might see a landscape by Corot or the lover of word pictures might see John Boscfield's Hawthorne hedges in bloom. This is art, indeed.

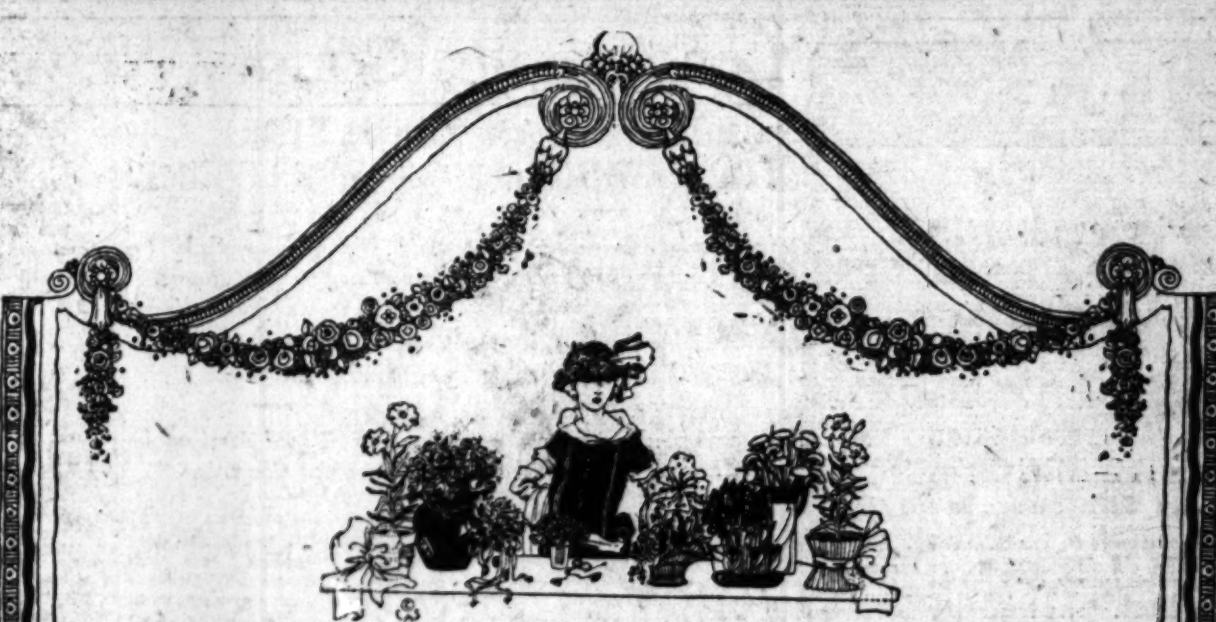

It is a fine sense of humor that can tolerate ridicule. Mrs. William J. O'Donnell made fun of club women in her reading from Don Marquis, and through it all the women of Ebell chuckled with a sense of enjoyment that showed they could see themselves as others see them.

IN RELIEF CAMPAIGN.

Today 20,000 letters, each carrying several share certificates of the Jewish relief campaign, will be mailed by F. R. Feltshana, chairman of the business districts to 20,000 business firms and individuals of prominence asking for their immediate response to enable the committee to bring the industrial campaign to a close before the residential canvass and general campaign starts, Sunday, March 23. This coming week will be known as industrial week and following the mailing of these letters the captains and co-workers on the industrial committee will make a telephone check of all firms receiving these share certificates.

DIVORCE TO DOCTOR.

Because she feared for her old home in Council Bluffs, Iowa, Mrs. May L. Cleaver was not happy in California and returned to Iowa. Yesterday her husband, Dr. J. Harvey Cleaver, a retired physician, was granted a divorce by Judge Taft on the ground of desertion.

"Really, I think with the caffeine removed the coffee is improved!"

KAFFEE HAG is not only free from the subtle drug, caffeine, but the coffee wax (dark, sticky and indigestible), the dirt and the foreign substances are also removed, leaving just the "cream" of the coffee—the flavor, aroma, essential oils and everything that is good and beneficial.

You can always count on a cup of rich coffee, with that irresistible flavor, if you drink the distinctive coffee, KAFFEE HAG.

Baron Bill Bacon Says He'll

Will Have a Dangerous Rival in Elmer Ralphs.

With the fifth invitation golf tourney of the year scheduled to start over the links of the Brentwood Country Club next Thursday morning, players of the festive sport are aragoc with enthusiasm. The recent tourney at Annandale was confined mainly to the efforts of the "pros," but the Brentwood affair will afford the hly-pure amateurs a chance to regain their amateur standing.

The rentwood argument will last for four days, the qualifying round being played on Thursday with the final set for Sunday.

IT'S LONG WAY.

It's a long way from his butter-milk farm in the San Gabriel watershed for Baron Bill Bacon to journey, but the winner of the San Gabriel and Los Angeles County Club tourneys has assured the committee that he will be on hand.

To date Bacon and Elmer Ralphs, both of the San Gabriel Country

Ralph is more familiar with the Biscayne course and this gave him an edge over his rival in the coming brush. The grocer was out limbering up in the L.A.A.C. tourney for club members, which he had entered last year. He tied with George Cline with a 77 gross in the qualifying round.

MANICURE COURSE.

Here another tourney date rolls around. Broughton the course is due to suffer a vigorous man-

Greens Committee, and "Pro" Berrien have been putting their heads together quite a bit of late, and it is their unanimous opinion that, following the lead of the Los Angeles, Annandale and San Gabriel clubs, the links must be turfed. It is

With the announcement by Business Manager Jack Cook that Marty Krug has practically agreed to accept the terms offered him by the Salt Lake team, the Bee's 1920 line-up is just about fixed. For the first time in its history the Salt Lake club is starting off the season with six veteran twirlers, besides Al Gould, who will not be in condition for several weeks, and a well-balanced infield and outfield of seasoned ball players.

The only new additions to the team for 1920 are Duke Redley and Worth in the outfield, the latter being a utility man, and Pitchers Cullip, Bromley and Matteson and Catchers Joe Jenkins and McHenry.

DISCUSS PLAN FOR DAVIS CUP.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, March 22.—The Davis cup committee at an executive meeting here tonight discussed plans for the international tennis matches for the Davis cup and also the advisability of sending representatives to compete in the English championship. The committee will announce its decisions later.

LOOKS GREAT.

Bill Rumber, who outcoated the Coast League swatters last year with his .382 average, is looking great in the early work at Boyes Springs and should have a better season this year. Whether he can improve, or even equal his hitting record of last season, remains to be seen, but Bill averts to the baseball world that he is going to clip closer to the .400 mark than he did last season.

Here's how the Bees will line-up for 1920:
Infield—Earl Shealey, first, Salt Lake 1919; Marty Krug, second, Salt Lake 1919; Ernie Johnson (manager), shortstop, Salt Lake 1919; Eddie Mulligan, third, Salt Lake 1919; J. H. Sands, Salt Lake 1919, utility.

Pitchers—"Lefty" Leverenz, Salt Lake 1919; Brockmeyer, San Francisco 1919; Nick Cullip, independent ball 1919, left-hander; Eddie Matteson, Dallas, 1919; Charley Baum, Salt Lake 1919; Ralph Stroud, Salt Lake 1919, right-hander; Al Gould, Salt Lake 1919 (as soon as he gets in condition); and Thurston and James, two promising recruits.

DEL HOWARD STARTS USING PRUNING KNIFE.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
OAKLAND, March 22.—Manager Del Howard of the Oakland club took out his pruning scissors today and after looking over his big Oak Tree very carefully decided that he should trim a couple of acorns from it. The unlikely ones were Pitchers Cy Cunningham and Ronald (Lefty) Coleman, the latter falling in his second attempt to make the Coast League grade. Both lads appeared to be the poorest prospects of the ten youngsters Howard has in camp. No more trimming will be done by Howard until after the end of the training season.

MURPHY WITHDRAWS HIS INJUNCTION SUIT.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
CHICAGO, March 22.—Charles Webb Murphy, former owner of the Cubs, today withdrew the injunction suit in which he sought to prevent the National League from making a schedule for the 1920 season until he had obtained an accounting with the Chicago club for money alleged to be due him.

ST. PETERSBURG (Fla.), March 22.—In an exhibition the Indianapolis team turned the tables on the Cincinnati Reds today. The score: Cincinnati Nationals 4 14 1 Indianapolis Am. Assn. 5 11 3 Batteries—Reuther, Gerner and Rariden, Allen; Adams, Crum and Henline.

CLAREMONT MEET NEXT.

Pomona College track enthusiasts have their eyes fixed on the approaching conference track and field meet which is to be held on Alumni Field, Claremont, on Saturday of this week. This meet will bring together Pomona, Redlands, Occidental, California Tech, Whittier and the southern branch of the university.

Redlands is expected to win the conference meet this year. Pomona has a chance to grab first, but the chance is a slim one. The Pomona team returned home minus the services of Reeves, the pole vaulter, who broke his arm in the meet at Berkeley. This accident means the loss of five points for Pomona.

to depart from his usual equanimity.

CASE OF HOLD-UP.

"It looks as though McAuley is deliberately trying to hold up the club," declared the Angel owner. This followed a previous statement to the effect that McAuley had been offered an increase which would enable him to increase his earnings for the season over those of last year by 40 per cent.

The case of Clarence Brooks, last year's premier backstop in the league, is causing considerable surprise. Brooks has never been a baseball Bohemian. Tractable in the spring, and with a reputation for conscientious effort on the field, he has been pointed out as a paragon for young players to pattern themselves after. But this spring a balky horse is a willing worker alongside Brooks. Clarence says the H. C. of L. is responsible for his attitude.

EAST GETS MORE.

"There were four catchers in the Coast League who received more money last season than I am asking," said Brooks. "Also, the tendency in the Coast League seems to be to pay players from the East more money than those who have been in the circuit a number of years."

The Vernon management takes the position that Brooks is asking too large a salary on the strength of an especially brilliant season. The Vernon club, like the Los Angeles team, has a reputation for dealing liberally with its players. This and the good record of Brooks makes it difficult to judge of the real merits of the case.

It may be that something of McAuley's temperament may be judged by an experience which Clyde Ware had with the player. After taking over the management of the Seattle club, Ware learned there was a possibility of securing McAuley. He called him up by long distance telephone in Fresno. McAuley was informed that Seattle might make an effort to land him. CHANGES MIND.

Without further parley, McAuley snapped over the telephone: "My terms are $4000. I wouldn't sign a contract for $3500, and I won't take the receiver, Ware, who figured that he stood in with McAuley through a personal acquaintance, changed his mind.

Should McAuley fail to report, Los Angeles doubtless will secure a shortstop elsewhere, but it will take a lot of gutter oil that "two-for-four" trade, which, a few weeks ago, was regarded as having "made" the Angels. In this deal Jack Fournier and Bunny Fabrique were traded for McAuley, Grover Hartley, Art Griggs and Lefty (Claude) Thomas. This was acclaimed a good piece of baseball business, especially as Fournier was dissatisfied with life in the minors, and, therefore, an uncertain asset.

REFUSES TO PLAY.

Right now the tangible results of the trade have narrowed down to Griggs and Thomas, capable men, but hardly offsetting the loss of Fournier and Fabrique. At least, out of that large deal, these are the only players apparent in the flesh. Hartley refused to play on the Coast, while McAuley continues to make snappy salary demands, which, it is opined, no minor league club will meet. Should the deal fall of the expected results, it will not be through lacking in basic soundness, but due to the vagaries of human nature as exemplified in certain baseball athletes.

Hartley, of course, is to be used for trading purposes, and something good may be received in return for him, while McAuley's case has not yet reached the hopeless stage. Undoubtedly, additional talent will be available before the season starts, enough, at least, to give the Angels a presentable front on getaway day.

And after Killefer's showing of last season, few will doubt his ability to keep the club in the race until the team attains completion. As the Angels stand right now they won't do, and everybody concerned is frank enough to admit it.

HEADED HERE.

Pitcher Ray Keating heard the sound of heavy firing here clear back in East Orange, N. J., Saturday, and is now rushing to the aid of the Angels, according to a wire received by Powers yesterday.

Rain caused by the heavy bombardment touched off by the Cubs Saturday continued in squirts yesterday and there was no baseball worth while. Red Killefer assembled his men, and then permitted them to disassemble. Red didn't can any more rookies, not having the heart to do so in the rain. Canned rookies moping around in the rain have a depressing effect on everybody.

SKULL PRACTICE.
Bill Essick also assembled his men, after which he lined them up for skull practice. Bill made a talk which filled the minds of the athletes with bright baseball thoughts. Mr. Essick prefers to lecture his men on rainy days, figuring that the remarks will soak in more readily.

Both teams will practice twice today if the grounds permit. The Chicago Cubs passed the day at their hotel tuning their ears to helpful remarks by Umpire William Klem, pertaining to the new rules. Mr. Klem, who has been making a round of the National League camps, came clear to the Coast to enlighten the Cubs on a dark day. Having removed this load from his mind by transferring it to the Cubs, Mr. Klem will depart for Chicago today. The Cubs had intended to go to Hartford today and practice the things Mr. Klem told them on the Seattle team, but wet grounds will cause this to be deferred until next Monday.

Play for another leg on the Wrigley cup will be resumed at Washington Park, tomorrow, when the Cubs and Angels will engage one another. Grover Cleveland Alexander will pitch this game for the

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
LOS ANGELES HARBOR, March 22.—After Mrs. H. O. Baker of 187 Oak Knoll avenue, Pasadena, had identified the body of the man found on the Palos Verdes hills Friday by prospectors as that of her missing husband, James Kelly, a cousin of Baker, this afternoon declared positively that the body was not that of his cousin.

Considerable mystery has developed over the finding of the body, which had been almost wholly consumed by coyotes. Mrs. Baker yesterday identified parts of the clothing of the dead man as that of her husband, from whom she had been separated for sometime. Kelly said he was positive the body was not that of his cousin on account of gray hair on the head of the corpse.

WARSHIPS LEAVE.
The superdreadnaughts New Mexico, Mississippi and Texas hauled up their anchors in the outer harbor today and sailed for San Francisco, where they will remain for about ten days' repairing. On the return voyage the ships will engage in a race down the coast for the speed supremacy of the fleet.

It is possible that the U.S.S. Idaho will leave here next week for San Francisco in order to participate in the race, as the Idaho now claims the honor of being the fastest ship in the fleet. The shortage of men on the big ships is serious, officers of the vessels stated today.

BIG FREIGHTER LAUNCHED.
Sliding gracefully into the waters of the Pacific slip, the steamer West Nantuxet, a 10,000-ton freight steamer to be built at the Southwestern shipyard, was launched here this morning. The vessel slid into the bay at 10:30 o'clock to the tune of "The Star Spangled Banner," played by the Southwestern band.

FOR NORTH CHINA TRADE.
News was received here today that the steamer West Nantuxet, building at the Southwestern yard, and the West Keala, building at the Long Beach yard, will be allocated to the Columbia-Pacific Navigation Company for the North China trade upon their completion. The first of the local steamers to be allocated to this company, the Angeles, will sail for Portland tomorrow to be put in commission.

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY.
The funeral of Mrs. Beale Lewis, wife of I. J. Lewis, secretary of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, will be held here Wednesday at 10 o'clock. The services will be at the interment will occur in Carson City, Nev., where the remains will be interred.

TO TACKLE STANFORD TEAM.

Panting with excitement, swimming instructor Vance Vieth of the L.A.A.C. announced yesterday that the Stanford paddling team is coming south for a dual meet with the clubmen one week from tomorrow night.

Vieth expressed an expansive ignorance as to the capabilities of the Cardinal water athletes, but heartily declared that it will be no trick at all for his stars to bowl over the invaders.

There will be nine events on the programme—50-yard and 100-yard sprints, 220 and 440, 100-yard breast stroke, 100-yard back stroke, diving, plunge for distance and the relay.

NO PLUNGE STARS.
Stanford wishes to eliminate the 440-yard race from the list and substitute the plunge for distance, but Vieth, having some of the quarter-milers and no plunge-for-distance stars, has refused to sanction the switch in the state. He declares that

From that day to this I have been able to play a round without some misfortune intervening to rob me of victory.

At Altadena I played the first nine holes in par and then blew up and never won another hole. And then playing in the defeated eight, I had my man one down at the seventeenth when he turned on me and squared the match with one of those unearthly puts. And on the eighteenth I struck a tree about the size of your little finger with my brassie shot. I couldn't hit that tree once in a million times if I tried, but it spoiled that shot. And then I made a great recovery and had a three-foot putt to save the match, and the putt stopped on the rim of the cup, and I quit the game.

OFF IT FOR LIFE.

It's going to be a great thing for me to rid myself of this habit. I will have more time for my family, and more time for my business. And I won't be so irritable and crabbed, and people won't have a chance to laugh me so much about my defeats. And I will get better acquainted with my children, and when evening comes I won't putter around with my clubs or read some fool book on golf, but I'll give some time to my wife, and I'll read some good books, and try to improve my mind. It sure feels good to be rid of such a nightmare as this golf has been to me, and I'll bet that ten years from now I'll be entirely recovered from the effects of this awful habit.

Word was received here today that the steamer Avalon, the latest addition to the Wrigley passenger steamer plying between Wilmington and Avalon, left Balboa, Canal Zone, last Friday, and should reach the harbor next week. Passenger traffic on the line has become so heavy that the steamers Cabrillo and Hermosa are proving inadequate.

JACK JOHNSON IS HEADING FOR BORDER.

NOGALES (Ariz.) American pugilists men arriving at the border on tonight's train from Guaymas, stated Johnson informed them that he intended giving exhibitions at Guaymas and Mexico in order to secure money to support his white wife, who will be with him when he crosses the border to serve sentence imposed upon him by the white slave charge on which he jumped bail in Chicago.

LONG BEACH WINS BASKETBALL TITLE.

By defeating the San Diego T.M.C.A. basketball team in the final round, 49 to 25, Long Beach last Saturday won the association championship of Southern California. The Seaside's hardest battle was in the semifinals, when they toppled Redlands, 37 to 24.

CONTROLLED POWER

The power of the Pierce-Arrow Dual Valve Six, mighty as it is, carries no element of danger. Creating this added motive force without increasing the size or the number of cylinders is no greater achievement than placing that power under the absolute control of the man behind the wheel.

The Power available is limitless; the power used is whatever the driver decides.

To crawl along at three miles an hour, breeze along at thirty, or burn up the road at seventy-five, is optional with the operator—the Pierce-Arrow simply complies.

BUYS CAPITAL STUDIO.

BERNSTEIN RESIGNS FROM THE NATIONAL.

By Grace Kingsley.

Jadore Bernstein has taken over the Capital studios and is to produce pictures there. The Capital studios is the old Lillian Way plant of the Metro Pictures Corporation.

Mr. Bernstein will have three stars, Mrs. Neil Hamilton, Helen Gibson and Capt. Locklear. He will also have an eastern star, to be announced later.

MORGAN DANCERS ARE

LURE AT ORPHEUM.

The Orpheum was packed yesterday to get a peek at the Morgan Dancers, who return in the sumptuously beautiful offering which they gave us last year. Their story of the Hunns who overran the Roman empire is told in an intensely dramatic and gorgeously-staged series of pantomimes and dances—and is set in three scenes, one a Roman garden, the next a road, and the last a ruined temple. It has to do with the invading Hunns, the last scene is particularly spectacular, showing a city in flames in the distance.

The remainder of the bill is pleasing. It includes Colette Ryan and Leta Osloh, two pretty girls who sing nicely and wear their clothes well; Harry Jolson, brother of Al, who was here not so many moons ago, and who gets over an amusing line of song and patter; Hubert H. Clein and Corinne in some dances; Dan Bruce and Margot Duffet in a bright light farce called "Through the Keyhole"; Maria Le in a repertoire of artistic poses; while the holdovers are "For Pity's Sake" and "Chester Kennedy and Frank Nelson."

LYTELL BRILLIANT

IN TALLY PHOTOPLAY.

I hope that when critics are prepared for this generation's crop of screen geniuses Bert Lytell's name will not be overlooked. He is a real actor, which means that he gets within the character he is playing. The remarkable difference between these two characters, the mercurial Lombard, which he did in the California a few months ago, and Charey Steele, the haughty, inexpressive barrier of "The Right of Way," which is on view at Tally's Broadway this week.

"The Right of Way" is after Sir Gilbert Parker's novel—and a long way after. As presented on the screen during the hour and a half, the search for a soul after belief in God, is not at all clearly brought out, and in the end the search comes to nothing. The whole drama strings together a number of highly interesting characters, are introduced, too, only to be dropped.

There are also some absurdities. When the hero is branded with the red hot cross, nobody seems to think even to put a bandage on the wound. And when he is shot, the heroine puts her arms about him, and pleads with him not to die, but nobody goes for a doctor.

BLACKSTONE DOES

MAGIC AT THE MASON.

One of the best comedies of the season is at the Mason. The picture is "Blackstone's" show. Much of the comedy is home made, with a part of the troupe in the audience. I suppose that everybody to performing.

That guy Blackstone, in short, gets the ball rolling, not altogether with his cleverness, but he has a good line of kidding which puts the audience in good humor with him and with itself. He lets the crowd kid him whenever it can, which isn't often. We've all seen the wash tub yield gold watches and the duck come out of the popgun, with other illogical performance of like ilk, but we haven't always seen these stunts done to the obligation of good-natured and witty patter which Blackstone reels off.

An interesting feature of the show is the duplication of many tricks of circus stunts, such as the rapping hand, a bell ringing in the cabinet without any visible means of locomotion, etc. Blackstone doesn't explain this trick, however.

Spectacular features are furnished by the mysterious appearance in a cage of a beautiful miss, and by a levitation feat in mid-air, in which a pretty girl takes part. There are three girls with the show, one of whom plays the banjo in pleasing fashion.

BAYES BULLETIN.

Nora Bayes, who comes to the Mason next week in "The First," was recently married for the fourth time. Besides this record she has also fame as an actress-manager, owning and managing "Ladies First."

HOLLYWOOD LEADS.

High School Girls Are Among Best Students at Mills College.

Students from Hollywood attending Mills, include Elizabeth Allen, Elizabeth Cook, Catherine Hayes, Charlotte Hoy, Catherine Tilden, Mary B. Kellogg, Frances Kellogg, Melvile Hovey, Elizabeth Lyle and Marian Hahn.

Picture Players.

Madge Kennedy is star of "The Blooming Angel," at the California; Viola Vale plays the leading role opposite Harry Carson in "Overland Red," at the Superba; and Betty Blythe has recently been signed for special feature productions for First National.

REVIEWS.

GOOD COMEDY VALUES.

WILLIAM DE MILLE REVEALS ESPRIT IN FILM.

By Edwin Schallert.

No doubt everyone of you has at some time or other become sufficiently well acquainted with that species of social cockatoo or macaw, known as the nouveau riche personage, to appreciate the funny highlights of "Jack Straw," a very human sort of romantic comedy, showing this week at Grauman's Theater. The anything but rare avis of society life is omnisciently present in the noise, bad grammar and flamboyant dress of Mrs. Parker-Jennings, the hyphen as the tie that links to worldly prestige—in William C. de Mille's production of the Somerset Maugham play.

In this his second feature production the brother of Cecil if, for the sake of variety, the poor fellow, I may be permitted to refer to William de Mille—rises to the ranks of the elite as a lion of lighter humor. In "The Tree of Knowledge," his initial picture, one obtained a slight glimpse of what Mr. de Mille might do, but he really has in "Jack Straw" a proper meter, and reveals genuine esprit in handling situations.

Of course much credit rests with the Maugham idea of having an incognito Archduke of Pomerania masquerade as himself, after a fashion, in these bright days of the vicissitudes of a rather checkered career as an actor and a writer. Robert Warwick is started in the picture, and he invariably fails to reflect satisfactorily sentiment, he does maintain excellently that fine point of reserve and dignity of manner which is conventionally associated with the nobility. The real highlight of the picture is before he is by Sylvia Ashton in another of her joyously buxom creations, and Charles Ogle, who is looking like a husband and father who had been waiting twenty-five years for a three weeks' holiday. Hopeless bourgeoisie from Harlem, and a woman who there's a smile in their every clumsy endeavor to fit in with celebrities.

Carroll McCormack, who has been many friends here for the first time in a screen role. In the feminine line, the picture is a natural and human, although not entirely free from some relative exaggerations of the stage. The role does not suit her, but she is sincere in her endeavor to carry it out as a clear representation.

The picture shares in attention with three different specials acts, dancing predominating in two of these. The picture is a selection in one episode, while Anne Ebert, the violinist, plays a "Spanish Dance" and the chorus of "Will You Remember," or as it is popularly known, "Sweetheart" from "Maytime."

UNIQUE PLAYS AT

LITTLE THEATER.

Far beyond the limpid, joyous melody of the classics, if one goes back into the past, the soul of the Middle Ages; beyond the soaring spires of the post-Renaissance architecture, the strength of the Middle Ages; beyond the plays of Shakespeare, if one still looks into the ages gone, the medieval period, and its related representations, wherein the stage is still linked to the church. This is the chief attraction of the Little Theater, the presentation of "Abraham and Isaac," which is typical of the medieval period, and its related production, "Niomedus," a modern variation on the ancient idea.

One of the chief attractions of Garet Holme's production of the two plays, which constitute a unique trip to Fullerton, with Liebe, and allowed to pay at the rate of $10 a month. McCullom made a trip to Fullerton, with Liebe, and allowed to pay at the rate of $10 a month. McCullom made a trip to Fullerton, with Liebe, and allowed to pay at the rate of $10 a month.

R. R. McCullom, charged with the Liebe, of violation of the Wartime Prohibition Act, was fined $10 a month. McCullom made a trip to Fullerton, with Liebe, and allowed to pay at the rate of $10 a month.

TO USE BALLOON.

Sounding Experiments to be Made on University Campus.

Officers and enlisted men from the Acadia-Balloon School will give a practical demonstration with a sounding balloon at 12:30 a.m. today on the campus of the southern branch, University of California.

The demonstration will be conducted under the direction of Dr. F. D. Carpenter, who is giving a course in applied meteorology at the university. The sounding balloon will be used to obtain observations regarding air currents at an altitude of about 15,000 feet.

Many of the officers and enlisted men at the Acadia-Balloon School are students of meteorology at the university, Dr. Carpenter says.

BURGE CHARGES GET NO ACTION.

Evidence of Craft by Police Lacking, Says Woolwine.

Will Co-operate if Needed, Declares Mayor Snyder.

Department is Inadequate, but Honest, Replies Chief.

Regarding reiterated statements by Police Commissioner Burge that there is craft in the police department, Dist. Atty. Woolwine said yesterday:

"No evidence upon which a grand jury investigation could be started has been presented to me by Mr. Burge. Criminal prosecutions cannot be successfully carried through by brass-band methods. It is folly to inform suspected persons in advance that they are to be investigated. I have not said that I was going to conduct a grand jury investigation for the reason indicated; that is to say, that I have nothing so far upon which to begin. Should sufficient evidence be laid before me, of course, promptly act. In my long interview with Mr. Burge on Saturday afternoon, he did not intimate to me that he intended to give a statement to any newspaper. I naturally presumed that if he were able to submit any evidence, that it would be done quietly and secretly so that we might entertain some hope of success. I have not the slightest doubt, however, that a statement by Mr. Burge's suspicious are well-founded."

BY THE MAYOR.

The Mayor yesterday gave out a statement relative to the matter, as follows:

"I have seen the article over Mr. Burge's signature, relative to police conditions. I am in possession of information which justifies the suspension or dismissal of any police officer, I shall co-operate with him immediately to this end."

"I hope that when this matter is placed before the grand jury, that they will thoroughly investigate the entire department, and the grand jurors are herewith assured they will have my co-operation."

HOMER'S COMMENT.

Chief of Police Homer issued this statement:

"The statement of Police Commissioner Burge, which appeared in a newspaper today, has been read with much interest. The Los Angeles police department, though necessarily inadequate because of circumstances entirely beyond the control of either the Mayor, the Police Commission or Chief of Police, is honest and efficient. Mr. Burge apparently believes otherwise."

"Duty and inclination alike prompt me to investigate rigorously any statement reflecting upon the integrity of any officer of this department, or affording ground for reasonable suspicion that the law has been or is being violated by anyone. Never has any other attitude been assumed by me nor am I aware that any officer of the police department, during my incumbency as Chief of Police, has done so."

"We are now, as heretofore, ready to co-operate vigorously with Mr. Burge or any other citizen in preventing violations of the law, as well as in arresting and prosecuting criminals."

The Chief smiled when asked about a $100,000 bribe that, according to Mr. Burge, a New York "fixer" offered the Los Angeles police executive.

ROBBERS SENTENCED.

One Year to Life Term for Two Hellman Bank Looters.

Herbert and Arthur Brown, brothers, convicted by a jury of having participated in the hold-up at the Union Square branch of the Hellman Commercial Trust and Savings Bank recently, when the manager, Warren Smith, was robbed of $17,000, were sentenced yesterday by Judge Craig to serve from one year to life in San Quentin.

The trial of the Brown brothers occupied a week. Edward Hudson, their codefendant, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to State Prison. He was brought back and testified against the brothers, saying on the stand that he was in prison and "hoped the Brown brothers would be sent there, too."

The case was prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Fricks. Guy Eddie, defense counsel, gave oral notice of an appeal on behalf of the brothers.

OCTOGENARIANS TO HONOR DR. PEEBLES.

Dr. James M. Peebles, house guest of Mrs. F. McKay, will be tendered a luncheon in honor of his ninety-sixth birthday anniversary by the members of the Octogenarian Club at the McKay home, 3409 South Hope street, today at 1 p.m. Dr. Peebles graduated from the University of Philadelphia when very young, then served for a time as preacher and physician.

He was United States Consul in Turkey, under President Grant, and then a member of the peace commission to the Sioux Indians. He is now engaged in writing magazine articles. The president of the Octogenarian Club is Gen. John S. Wilcox. Capt. C. F. Buell is secretary.

FOR A NEW CHURCH.

St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral Drive for Funds Starts Soon.

The drive to procure funds with which to erect a new church edifice on the site of the present St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral will be launched immediately after Lent, it was announced yesterday. The new building will cost $200,000.

Plans are to be drawn by Reginald D. Johnson of Pasadena. It is proposed to retain the present site because, while the Olivestreet property would find a ready sale, it is believed that the need for a downtown church is so urgent that the close location should not be exchanged for any other.

The money is to be raised by popular subscription.

MARCH

TELLS OF I.W.W. HOLD-UP AGENTS

Worker Who Refused to Join Crippled by "Sab Cat."

Appoint "Highjacks" to Rob, Former Member Says.

State to Complete Evidence Against Steelink Today.

Testimony of Joseph Arata, a workman who refused to join the I.W.W., and who told how for that reason he was permanently crippled by "direct action" on the part of members of that organization, furnished a pathetic finale yesterday to the trial in Judge William's court of Nicholas Steelink, reputed I.W.W., accused of criminal syndicalism.

Arata testified that he was working on McDonald's Island, near Stockton, when several I.W.W. put I.W.W. in his shoes because of his refusal to join the radical league. Arata said he is unable to work now at his former employment.

John Dymond, confessed I.W.W., who is one of the State's main witnesses, testified that he had a talk with two I.W.W. who said they had placed the I.W.W. in Arata's shoes.

Questioned by Dist. Atty. Woolsey and Deputies Keyes and Turner, Dymond said he has held various offices in the organization, once being secretary of the Fresno local. Versed in the history of the organization, Dymond testified that the Western Federation of Miners joined the I.W.W. in 1905, 27,000 strong, but withdrew following a split when the "political action" clause in the I.W.W. constitution was withdrawn and because the I.W.W. became committed to a policy of forcible seizure of all industries and the overturning of all government.

He said the duty of a "sapping" committee was to beat up non-strikes or rubber boots and sometimes revolvers. He said many were forced to join the I.W.W. or leave their work. He said he was often on such a committee at Porterville and Lindsay, Cal. He said the I.W.W. had its most "successful" season in 1917, committing many acts of sabotage.

Dymond said that the action of some so-called "moralists" in the Fresno local in advocating the abolition of the "highjacks," or I.W.W. hold-up men, nearly resulted in a split in that organization. He told how a letter got out that advocated changing away with "highjacks," and how a large number of I.W.W. came to Fresno to investigate, but the secretary of the local there informed them the letter was a mere camouflage.

He said that four times in one day he was held up and robbed by "highjacks," but his money was returned when he showed his I.W.W. card. He said the "highjacks" had built up the Fresno local I.W.W.

Dymond testified that an I.W.W. named Quinlan informed him that Quinlan and an I.W.W. named Connor started the fire that burned the plant at Weston, Cal., of the Red River Lumber Company, causing a damage in excess of $1,000,000. He said an I.W.W. named O'Connell, said in 1918, that in 1917 the I.W.W. greatly damaged the cotton crop of Imperial Valley and expected in 1918 to ruin the entire crop.

Under cross-examination by S. G. Pandit and J. H. Ryckman, defense counsel Dymond estimated the strength of the I.W.W. in 1918 at 450,000. He said that the I.W.W. have been active in the past, but kept accounts of acts of sabotage, mostly fires.

W. A. Cornwall, a police officer, testified that he had seen Steelink many times about the I.W.W. hall in this city. He said he saw Steelink at Blanchard Hall at an I.W.W. meeting.

Miss Sarah M. Campbell of 225 North Lorena avenue, testified to visiting I.W.W. Hall in the Germain Building, and buying Red literature from Jack Roberts, then said to be a secretary of that organization. Deputy District Attorney Keyes then read excerpts from the papers obtained, one being on "The Deadly Parallel," a comparison of a statement of the American Federation of Labor, that it would stand by the United States government, and one by the I.W.W., saying it would not.

REQUESTS TERM PENITENTIARY.

Judge Grants Plea, Sending Swindler to McNeil's Island for Year.

At his own request the sentence of six months in the County Jail and a fine of $150, for defrauding the government of railway transportation, given to T. J. Glyder, alias Joe Peak, was changed by United States District Judge Trippe yesterday to a year and a day at the Federal penitentiary on McNeil's Island.

Glyder said that he had received a bad injury on his head in a fight in New Orleans, and needed medical and surgical treatment which he could not get in the County Jail.

Glyder was connected with the narcotic division of the Internal Revenue Bureau at Chicago, for three years, but was suspended for a violation of the rules and afterward discharged. He took with him a book of requests for railway transportation issued to such officers and traveled all over the country. It is asserted that he is wanted elsewhere for impersonating a Federal officer.

FOR STEAMSHIP LINE TO SOUTH AMERICA.

FIRST OF FOUR SHIPS WILL SAIL FROM THE HARBOR DIRECT IN APRIL.

A direct ship line between Los Angeles Harbor and the east coast of South America will be inaugurated next month, according to announcement at the United States department of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, by Charles E. Brown, manager of Swaine & Hoyt, San Francisco. Four ships for this line have been allocated by the United States Shipping Board, and it is expected to send the first ship on its long voyage the last half of April.

The new line will be the first to bring Los Angeles in direct contact with the east coast of South America. The ships will take cargo from all Pacific ports and go to the South American countries via the Magellan Straits. They will return up north on the east coast of South America and enter the Pacific via the Panama Canal. The sailing will be once a month, as about thirty-five ships are required to make the trip from San Francisco to Buenos Aires.

In discussing the new line, Mr. Brown stated that all ports of the Pacific would be on a par as far as obtaining South American business is concerned. The new line is opening up a virgin territory, and the resulting business must be developed by the initiative of the ports touched by the ships.

Initiation of the South American line is expected to result in a Vice-Consul for Argentina being appointed in Los Angeles. Horacio B. Caceres, Consul-General for Argentina, with headquarters in San Francisco, is taking a deep interest in the pioneer line from the west coast to his country and has notified the local consular officials that he will aid them in sending samples of their wares, with prices, terms, etc., to good firms in Argentina.

For the first ship he will cable quotations. Los Angeles' first exporters will have the same advantage and may address the Argentine Consul at the Ruess Building, San Francisco. Local merchants interested in Brazilian exports can get prices and other information from the Consul-General until such time as a Vice-Consul is appointed in Los Angeles.

The Consul-General has recommended that this be done at once.

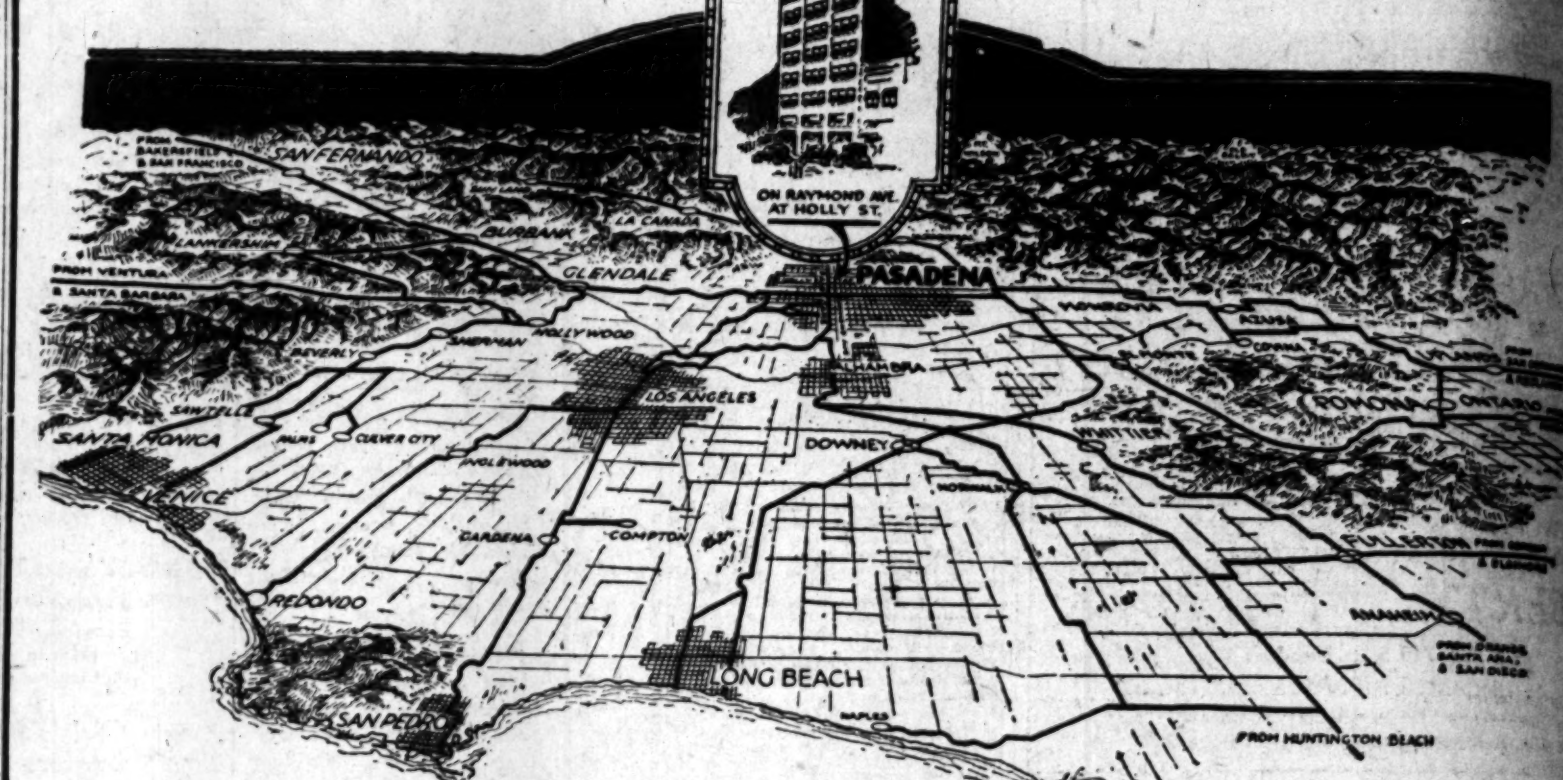

Corn, hides, tallow, wax, cocoa, molasses and other commodities can be had at the South American ports, while they are in the market for tractors, beans, women's wearing apparel, trucks, agricultural implements, gas engines, oil, gasoline, asphalt and other products of Southern California. Pacific Coast shippers are assured of an equal footing with shippers from New Orleans or New York to East South American ports, as rates will be established that will keep them on a parity with exporters from these points.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Many New Bond Issues; Food Reserve; Confidence Grows; Stocks.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

Business was slow yesterday. The rain, of course, had a good deal to do with external conditions. The market was lacking both in financial, retail, speculative and food divisions. No price changes of moment were recorded. The Federal reserve statement revealed a fairly satisfactory condition so far as the twelfth district is concerned. The rain was timely and will do much good on the range and the truck farms. It promised a decline in hay prices which, in turn, should be reflected later in meat and dairy prices. Retail trade was quiet. The feature of the day was the unusual number of attractive bond issues exposed to the public view by investment brokers. The formation of a new Los Angeles investment firm composed of men of national reputation was announced. A large number of permits to sell stock in various local enterprises have been issued. The stock market was very dull, but the push in natural resources, production to come into the market. The outlook seems to be for a higher level. Credit showed further signs of restriction, but the attitude of business apprehension seems to be giving way to more subdued confidence. A few stocks showed a slight uptick, but the market was generally flat.

Quebec Bonds. The National City Company is offering $2,500,000 of the Province of Quebec five-year, 6 per cent. gold bonds, due March 1, 1925. The bonds are to be sold at $95.50 and interest to yield 7 per cent. In view of the strong financial condition of the province, the issue affords attractive features. The assessed valuation of the property in the province is placed in excess of $1,700,000,000, against which there is a total funded debt of $10,700,012. The province of Quebec, the largest in the Dominion of Canada, is rich in natural resources, producing 40 per cent. of the world's asbestos supply, and containing thousands of acres of forest land valued at more than $1 billion dollars. There are 7000 industrial establishments in the province, with an annual roll of more than $70,000,000. The bonds are payable to the principal and interest in gold of the United States in New York.

Dayton Power and Light. The Harris Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago and E. H. Rollins & Sons are offering, in joint account, a $2,000,000 issue of the bonds of the Dayton Power and Light Company. Both of the underwriting companies have representatives in Los Angeles. The bonds mature in three years, and bear interest at the rate of 7 per cent. The Dayton Power and Light does the entire lighting business in Dayton, O., and in fifty-six neighboring communities, serving a population of 125,000. The proceeds of the issue will retire outstanding bonds to the extent of $1,750,000, and reimburse the company in part for expenditures for additions and extensions. The issue will be secured by the pledge of $2,567,000 of the company's first and refunding mortgage, 5 per cent. bonds, due in 1941. The pledged bonds, in turn, are secured by a direct first mortgage upon the property of the company, valued at more than $7,000,000. The replacement value of the physical property of the company is greater in excess of the outstanding funded debt, including the present issue.

Palmitive Preferred. The issue of Palmitive company 7 per cent. cumulative preferred stock, offered by Stephens & Co., is being rapidly absorbed by the investing public. The Palmitive company was established in 1914. Gross sales of the Palmitive products have increased from $301,000 in 1917 to about $14,000,000 for 1919. For the year 1920 the estimated sales of the company are placed at $20,000,000. Net profits for the year 1919 are equal to $15 per share, or five times the dividend requirements on the preferred stock outstanding.

Los Angeles Stocks. The rain and the usual Monday lethargy made for a slow opening of the week's business in the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, but the afternoon session there was a decided improvement and considerable activity, especially in the mining list where values moved up to 40 cents and was active at that figure. Sunny-side showed new strength and sold at $ 2-3 cents. United Eastern was strong at $3.97 1/2 a gain of four points. This was followed closely by Tom Reed which was active at $13.1, a three point gain for the day. In oil, Union, of California, sold at $19.1, the Delaware company reacting to $24.75. General Petroleum moved up in the morning to $149.50. There were no changes of any importance in the balance of the list. Industrials were comparatively quiet. Los Angeles Investment

"Foreign Trade Through Foreign Investments"

The Financial Strength of Great Britain

THERE can be but one result of an investigation of the national wealth, debt, income, exports and imports of each one of the Allies—Great Britain is without doubt strongest financially.

British exchange has suffered less than any of the others and it is reasonable to believe will be the first to approach normal. The Chancellor of the British Exchequer recently announced that the British Government is resolved to avoid all new borrowings and to establish an adequate sinking fund and to stop currency inflation. He also announced that the $500,000,000 Anglo-French Loan would be paid off at maturity.

It is obvious that in view of these conditions, while British Government Internal Loans do not offer as great speculative possibilities as the internal loans of some of the other nations, the British bonds will supply better investments in addition to offering profits ranging from 29% to 80%.

We have prepared an interesting pamphlet which gives full information regarding each one of the British Government Internal Loans. There is a complete table showing the date of each issue, the amount outstanding, interest rates, maturities, the present approximate yield on bonds delivered here, approximate yield with exchange at normal, approximate profit on redemption if bonds are held until maturity and exchange returns to normal.

Americans who invest in British bonds which are paying a good income have reasonable assurance of substantial profits and have the satisfaction of taking the most logical way of improving exchange rates and in turn the export trade of America with Great Britain.

For present and future reference our new pamphlet should be in the hands of every banker, manufacturer, exporter and investor. Complimentary copy sent on request for Circular No. L-80.

Soiling Towards a Vision

PIONEER days developed two types of men. The first, the adventurer, his eyes ever on the Earth with its hidden store of wealth. The second, the builder, his eyes lifted to the vision of the great industrial development to come.

The men who build the H. S. Crocker Company from its humble beginning 64 years ago belonged to this second type. They were not blinded by the promise of sudden wealth but kept ever before them the vision of success founded on service.

Today the H. S. Crocker Company, with five stores located in four California cities—San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland & Sacramento—is a monument to that ideal—the Success of Service.

The H. S. Crocker Company today enjoys the reputation of being California's leading Stationer and Printer.

H. S. Crocker Company customers have at their disposal a most complete line of stationery, leather goods and office appliances; one of the largest and best equipped printing, engraving and lithographing plants in the West, and an organization whose motto is "SERVICE."

POWELL ENTERS PLEA OF GUILTY.

Rail Pass Swindler will be Sentenced Today.

Wrongdoing Denied by Wife and Aged Father.

Others Ask Time to Decide on Court Course.

As had been expected, Theodore W. Powell, one of the asserted conspirators in the plan to defraud the United States government by the issuance and sale of counterfeit railroad passes, pleaded guilty to the indictment returned by the Federal grand jury, when arraigned yesterday morning before United States District Judge Trippe. He made no statement in connection with the case. At the request of his attorney, S. S. Hahn, his sentence will be pronounced this morning.

Powell's wife, Mrs. Anna Powell, and his father, pleaded not guilty. Before the elder man entered his plea he addressed the court, saying: "I have been indicted under the name of David A. Weatherly, but my name is Powell. When but 8 years of age I was bound out by my parents, and when I enlisted in the United States Army I did so under the name of Weatherly, which I have used ever since. It is now necessary for me to keep the name Weatherly as I am known by it on the pension roll." Weatherly lost a part of his left leg in a battle of the Civil War.

Louis Gordon, an engraver; Frank Price, a local automobile accessory dealer; P. H. Halbritter and Albert Clark, Broadway merchants, asked through their attorneys for two weeks to plead, and this was granted by the court.

The other defendants, J. E. Brown, Ned W. Williams, Harry Mead, Harrison C. Cash, William E. Stewart, and Charles Ogier, did not appear for arraignment. It is understood there was a misunderstanding as to whether or not they should be in court yesterday. They will appear sometime this week. The maximum sentence that can be imposed on Powell is two years in the Federal prison at McNeil's Island. It is believed that he is preparing to plead for clemency. He snuggled close to the side of his wife, who is not to be tried, although she has been indicted, and he fondled intimate his baby girl.

HOW TO VOTE FOR HOOVER.

If you want to aid in making Herbert Hoover President of the United States, and have established a residence in California, you must register before April 3. Only those registering before that date will be permitted to vote in the Presidential primaries in May.

Remember that the only pledged Hoover delegates will be on the Republican ballot. To make sure of voting that ticket you must express yourself as a Republican by preference at the time you register. The Attorney-General has given an opinion that those who have not stated themselves as preferring the Republican party are entitled to receive a Republican ticket when they go to vote in the primary. But this decision very probably will be contested in the higher courts.

To make certain of an opportunity to vote for Hoover delegates register by April 3 and state your party preference to be REPUBLICAN. Only those so registered may be certain of an opportunity to help make Hoover President.

TO CONTINUE BUREAU WORK

That the Los Angeles office of the Bureau of Markets will be maintained, despite greatly reduced appropriations by Congress for carrying on this work, was the statement made yesterday by W. A. Sherman, director of the fruit and vegetable division of the Bureau of Markets. Mr. Sherman is making a brief visit in Los Angeles, en route to Sacramento, where he will confer with the director of agriculture of California on the question of standardization of inspection of California fruits and vegetables.

The appropriation for the Bureau of Markets work, as passed by Congress, has been greatly reduced for the coming fiscal year, for which reason it may be found necessary to discontinue the work.

URGENT APPEAL FOR BEST MEN.

Noted Physicist Speaks on Technology Institute.

Tells of Opportunities to be Found in Pasadena.

Unique Chances Exist Here, Says Dr. Millikan.

An urgent appeal for more highly trained scientific men was made last night by Dr. Robert A. Millikan, noted physicist of the University of Chicago, who spoke before a representative gathering of business men and educators at the California Club. The purpose of the dinner was to present the successful educational work being accomplished by the California Institute of Technology, formerly known as Throop Institute of Technology, and to afford the officials the opportunity of hearing the eastern views of the institution. Henry W. O'Melveny and Harry Chandler, of the board of trustees of the institute were hosts at the affair.

The eyes of the entire United States are upon the California Institute of Technology," said Dr. Millikan. "Our climatic conditions make it possible for you to draw your students from all over the United States."

MUST DEVELOP MORE. In his appeal for highly trained scientists, Dr. Millikan declared the United States has not contributed its share in outstanding scientific men in comparison to European countries.

"Nor has it as strong a corps of scientific men as Germany has," he said. To prove this statement Dr. Millikan stated that Germany has had greater success in scientific development than any other nation. "Are we developing the type of men Germany had during the war?" he asked. "Are we producing men with sufficient technical education to keep our industries in the front rank? There is no doubt we have more success in the private institutions, such as the California Institute of Technology, and I think that here in Los Angeles will be found opportunities which cannot be found anywhere else in the United States."

During the war Dr. Millikan was chief of the science and research division of the Signal Corps, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel. Other speakers were Dr. Arthur Amos Noyes, professor of chemistry of the California Institute of Technology, and formerly acting president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who contrasted the work of the California Institute with eastern institutions of like character.
